FOREWORD

Again we are privileged to publish the ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK for the Reformed Church in the United States, which is designed for the use of all who love and serve our beloved Zion. In brief form for busy people, this book contains a revised roster of the ministers, judicatories, Boards, institutions and agencies of the Reformed Church in the United States, together with such statistics as may be of value to those who are concerned in the welfare of our Church. In its pages will be found for your information and inspiration the chief facts concerning the personnel of our organizations and agencies and a resumé of the outstanding activities of the past year in our denomination. We again express our thanks for the co-operation of pastors and people who aided in giving this publication so large a circulation, more extensive than that enjoyed by any other publication of our Church. No Consistory can afford to neglect the opportunity of pushing the sale of this valuable book of facts from which anyone may derive so much knowledge of what the Church is doing and what are the chief challenges to enlarged usefulness today.

The year 1932 should be one of very special importance in the Reformed Church, in spite of the distractions incident to a Presidential election. We must not allow even our important civic obligations to minimize the unexampled need for religious work in our land. For the first half of the year 1932, a Campaign of Spiritual Emphasis has been projected, which should be the major activity of all loyal sons and daughters of the Reformed Church. This Campaign is designed to aim (1) at deepening the spiritual life of pastors and people; (2) at reaching the un-Churched in our communities with the challenge and the message of the Gospel of Christ. Beginning with the celebration, on October 11, 1931, of the 400th anniversary of Ulrich Zwingli's martyrdom on the Battlefield of Cappel, a well-devised plan has been formulated by our Committee on Spiritual Resources of the Executive Committee of General Synod. This is a supreme opportunity for the Church, and we can only hope and pray that it may enlist the loyal co-operation of all. Here is a Campaign which does not speak of money or the raising of a budget. It puts first things first and is designed solely to exalt spiritual values.

It is just the sort of activity most needed in our Church, particularly in this time of economic depression and comparative unemployment. In this hour time must be taken for religion. Too long spiritual values have been minimized and even many in our Churches have apparently forgotten that the Church is a spiritual institution created to bring forth spiritual fruit by the use of spiritual weapons and methods. Therefore, we call upon pulpit and pew alike to make this significant movement a matter of fervent and prevailing prayer, and to dedicate all your time and talents to this holy cause in abundant measure. It should mean an unspeakable benediction not only on our congregations but on our homes, our schools, and all our human relationships.

Late in June following this intensive Campaign, the Triennial Sessions of our General Synod will be held in Grace Church, Akron, Ohio, the Rev. Orris W. Haulman, pastor. We do not know what this important gathering holds in store for our Church. It is possible that it may mark a genuine forward march with regard to the most feasible form of Church union. If the period of financial depression is prolonged, the peril will undoubtedly be great that the delegates may be too much imbued with the psychology of gloom and fear, and the defeatist spirit that goes with it, to undertake great things for God or even to expect great things from God. The fields were never whiter to the harvest and never has far-seeing spiritual vision and unfaltering courage been more profoundly needed. We should hope and pray that those who gather to represent the Church in our highest judicatory will take counsel of their faith and not of their doubts and fears, and will bravely plan for a day of larger things in the Reformed Church. Meanwhile, if our spiritual life is really deepened, there will be little difficulty in meeting our material obligations, in the payment of our Apportionments, and in liquidating the disheartening debts of our Boards and institutions, which have suffered so much from the depleted treasuries and the unpaid obligations of the past few years. If we have love enough in our hearts, the tasks of 1932, difficult as they may now appear, will not seem to us too great an offering to lay at the feet of our Saviour.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE GENERAL SYNOD

The Executive Committee has been unusually active in carrying out the instructions and policies of the General Synod in making the Reformed Church function constructively in the building of the Kingdom.

We are in the closing year of the triennium. The entire Church is looking forward to the meeting of the General Synod in Akron, Ohio.

The fixing of the date for the meeting was entrusted to the Executive Committee of the General Synod. The Executive Committee considered the date from every possible angle and finally decided to set it for Tuesday, June 21, 1932. It has been pointed out that this completes a democratic cycle: the congregation closing its year in December and holding a congregational meeting soon afterward; the Classis meeting in January, February, or March; the Synod meeting in April, May or June; and the General Synod late in June. The actions of the General Synod which are referable to the Classes will then reach the Classes at their fall meetings, in the same year that the General Synod itself has met.

The Executive Committee was called upon to help to solve a number of problems brought about by the decision of the General Synod that the fiscal year of all judicatories, Boards, etc., should be the same as the calendar year and close with December 31st. Immediately after the meeting of the General Synod, a number of Classes decided that, since the year closed in December, it would be advisable for them to meet as soon as possible afterward. The General Synod of 1929 submitted to the Classes an amendment to the Constitution providing for spring and fall meetings of the Classes. Although this cannot be formally adopted until the meeting of General Synod in 1932, nearly all of the Classes moved up the dates for their meetings. Thirty-one of them met in January and February of 1931. The word "spring" seems out of place for these meetings during the winter, but it is evident that the Classes desire to meet as soon as possible after the close of the year.

Since the Classes were meeting so early it became desirable that the Synods should meet in the spring of the year. Three of them met in the spring of 1931 and others planned to do so in future years. That the General Synod is to meet at the end of June fits in well with the general plan.

The fall meetings of the Classes have thus assumed great importance. At the spring, or winter, meeting of the Classis all of the work having to do with the congregations and the Classis—practically everything that was done at the annual meetings of the Classes in May and June in former years—is attended to, while the fall meeting is devoted to the denominational work and program. The Boards and the Executive Committee of the General Synod do not send statements or representatives to the spring meetings except upon request, but they send both statements and representatives and lend all possible aid at the fall meetings.

The overlappings of the boundaries of Synods and Classes has been the cause of great loss in many ways. The General Synod of 1929 adopted the policy that there should be no overlapping of boundaries of Synods and Classes, and instructed the Executive Committee to aid in every possible way in the carrying out of this policy. The Executive Committee therefore communicated with all the Synods and Classes and asked that they study this subject, note all instances of overlapping, and appoint special committees or individuals to help carry out this policy. All of the Synods, and many of the Classes, appointed these special committees. At a conference, attended by the chairmen of the committees of six of the Synods and a member of the committee of the seventh Synod, held at Pittsburgh, Pa., May 8, 1931, the entire situation was gone over and each Synodical representative arranged to report to his Synod with recommendations. The Classical Committees are moving along similar lines, and it is hoped that in the near future substantial progress can be made in carrying out the policy of adjusting the boundaries of Synods and Classes so that none will overlap.

The Executive Committee has been studying the question of marriage, divorce, and re-marriage, in its many phases. This was referred to the Executive Committee by the General Synod. The Church must speak on this subject. The spiritual leaders, whether pastors, laymen, or women, should determine what is to be said. The Executive Committee has discussed it at every meeting. It hopes to learn the mind of the Church and to be able to make a satisfactory report to the General Synod.

In September of each year the Chairmen of the Missionary and Stewardship Committees of all of the Classes meet by instruction and authority of the General Synod in a two-day conference to apportion the Budgets of the Boards of the General Synod among the Classes and to plan for advancing all of the work of the denomination. At the meeting in 1930 the chairmen of the committees followed the instructions of the General Synod in apportioning the Budgets by taking into account the five factors: membership, previous giving to congregational expenses and to benevolences, property above indebtedness, and moral ability. They divided the denominational budgets among the Classes on the basis of thirty per cent for membership, thirty per cent each on giving to congregational expenses and benevolences during the previous three years, and ten per cent on property above indebtedness. Inequalities due to unusual conditions in some of the Classes were adjusted under the head of "moral ability." These adjustments were important but amounted to only about three per cent of the total. The chairmen, meeting in conference in September, 1931, to apportion the Budgets for 1932, in wrestling with the problem of formulating an equitable and satisfactory plan for apportioning the Budgets, felt that although there are tremendous difficulties in the way the problem can be solved in a spirit of Christian brotherliness, the strong helping to bear the burdens of the weak, but all putting forth the strongest possible effort to support our Kingdom work.

Our Classes, Synods, and the General Synod, at their meetings, have followed the order of business adopted in 1840 and changed very little in the succeeding nearly one hundred years. This order of business is outgrown and not adapted to the work of the Church today. Theoretically it is being followed, but it is necessary to read much into it, based on the deliverances made year after year by the several judicatories. Much of our work is being done on the basis of resolutions rather than on "orders of business" formally adopted. The change of year, with the change of times of meetings of judicatories, and the division of the work of the Classes into two distinct parts for spring and fall meetings, makes necessary a new order of business. The Executive Committee is planning to submit a number of suggestions and recommendations to the General Synod in 1932.

Annuity Agreements have been written by all of the Boards of the General Synod, and by many of our Institutions, with persons who have made comparatively large gifts on condition that they receive a fixed income during their lifetime. The practices of the Boards and Agencies were different; there was competition among them; some Institutions and Agencies were conducting annuity business without adequate provision; the whole annuity plan was in danger. The General Synod in 1929 instructed the Executive Committee to review the annuity plan and to fix uniform rates for all the Boards and Agencies of the Reformed Church. At a meeting held under the auspices of the Executive Committee in Philadelphia, May 21, 1931, attended by representatives of all of the Boards of the General Synod, two colleges, one academy, three orphanages, two old folks' homes and members of the Committee on Co-ordination of Finances, certain principles underlying the writing of Annuity Agreements were agreed upon and rates were adopted which are not to be exceeded by any Board, Institution or Agency. These principles and rates are now in effect.

The year from June 15, 1930, to June 15, 1931, was Stewardship Year. This was observed in common with a number of other Protestant denominations. A growing interest in Stewardship on the part of our entire membership was very manifest. Pastors preached on Stewardship and they and men and women members of the congregations delivered hundreds of addresses on various phases of Stewardship. There were Stewardship classes in churches and Sunday-schools. Proportionate giving was encouraged and emphasized. The annual Stewardship Essay and Poster Contest was the most successful of the nine contests we have had so far. More than five thousand packets of Stewardship pamphlets and leaflets were sent out upon request for those who proposed to write essays or make posters. More than six thousand copies of the Manual and Course of Study on Christian Stewardship were sent out on request for members of catechetical classes. It is evident that our young people are becoming interested. The Church papers carried articles on Stewardship almost every week. The emphasis on Christian Stewardship did not end with the close of Stewardship Year and will not end until every member has recognized and accepted his responsibility as a Christian Steward. All of the Churches of Christendom are now giving increased attention to Christian Stewardship. The influence of the World Conference on Stewardship and Church Finance, held at Edinburgh, Scotland, last June, attended by Executive Secretary William E. Lampe and Marshall R. Anspach, Esq., will be strongly felt for many years.

One of the main functions of the Executive Committee is to assist the Boards and co-operate with the Missionary and Stewardship Committees of congregations, Classes, and Synods, in securing the payment of the Apportionments for all our missionary and benevolent work. The Committee has endeavored to give information regarding the work as a whole, to suggest methods for the securing of funds, and to supply a motive for generous giving. It has made heroic efforts to undergird the work of the Boards and to strongly second and strengthen their solicitations. The receipts of the Boards have been somewhat stationary for the last few years. In the face of unprecedented opportunities to "lengthen our cords and strengthen our stakes," there have been unusual economic and other difficulties which have impeded our progress. Our faith and our courage are being tested. The Missionary and Stewardship Committees have worked energetically and deserve highest commendation. The Boards, to whom the Church has entrusted responsibility for this work, are doing their very best in this critical situation to "carry on." They not only deserve the best support of the Church but heroic co-operation in securing their Budgets in full each year.

In order to underwrite the denominational Budget for the four Boards of the General Synod for 1932, a total sum of $1,249,050 is needed. Every possible effort is being made in the fall of 1931 to have a thorough Every Member Canvass in every congregation during the month of November. This is being preceded by conferences of representatives of Boards, and other ministers and laymen, with consistories of congregations under the direction of the Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committees. More and more the promotional work is being directed by these Classical Committees and by the pastors and consistories of our churches. Information is being supplied through an illustrated lecture, "The Reformed Church and the Kingdom," and through the printed page, pamphlets, booklets, etc. If the Canvass is thoroughly prepared for and thoroughly carried through, and if every member makes a reasonable subscription and pays it weekly during 1932, it will be possible for every Board to receive in that year the full amount of its Budget. We recognize the fact, that in this season of stress, this project is not only a financial but a spiritual challenge.

In matters of publicity information on the work of the Reformed Church has been freely given not only in all of our denominational Church papers, but also through the public press in hundreds of newspapers published in cities and towns where we have congregations.

October 11, 1931, is the Four Hundredth Anniversary of the death of Ulric Zwingli. The Executive Committee requested that this be celebrated, and suggested that it be made an occasion to develop a clearer denominational consciousness among pastors and people and to stimulate them to deeper love and loyalty to the Reformed Church. A booklet on the life and work of Zwingli, by Dr. T. P. Bolliger, was published, and articles regarding Zwingli were written for the Church papers by a number of our ministers.

Feeling that the greatest and most important need of our Church is spiritual emphasis, the Executive Committee arranged that teams of selected men visit the Classes during September and October to discuss a general plan prepared by the Committee on Spiritual Resources of the Executive Committee for a Campaign of Spiritual Emphasis to be carried on throughout our Church during the period January to June, 1932. It seems patent to almost everyone that the time is ripe when increased emphasis must be laid upon deepening the spiritual life of our members and reaching the unchurched in our communities. Personal workers are being enlisted in every congregation, church membership classes are being organized, church attendance is being urged. There will be a preaching and teaching program in the congregations directed toward deepening the spiritual life of our present members and presenting the challenge of church membership and the claims of Jesus Christ upon every life. The Lenten season, Holy Week, and the period until Pentecost, will be utilized definitely for evangelization purposes. It is hoped that through prayer and effort there will be a great advance.

This is no time for doubt or fear. It is a time for spiritual activity and aggression. The Reformed Church has a great heritage which we must not lose. Our people are loyal and will not fail if they are shown the way the Lord has charted for us as a Christian Church. With our fathers we must say: After all, the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth. We should make this closing year of the present triennium one of the best, if not the best, in our long denominational history. May the Lord make us increasingly conscious and worthy of our Stewardship.

The National Home Missions Congress which was held in Washington, D. C., has put the Home Mission enterprise in a new light before the American people. The immense size and the complexity of the task, the new strategy involving the principles of comity and co-operation were disclosed with convincing definiteness. The fact that there are no longer pioneer conditions prevailing in America, and that immigration has practically ceased, has not lessened the Home Mission responsibility upon our Churches. New problems, new tasks have emerged out of new social, industrial, and religious conditions which tax the minds of missionary leaders and test the spirit of liberality among our people.

The Board of Home Missions of the Reformed Church in the United States has endeavored to keep abreast with the new movements of our age. It has adapted its program so as to conform to what are regarded as the latest and best methods of Kingdom building. But in the carrying out of its program it has been seriously handicapped by an inadequate response on the part of the Church itself. When the General Synod met at Indianapolis in 1929 that body voted an annual budget for Home Missions of $517,400. The Board confidently expected that the Church would respond with an amount at least approximating that figure. The Church had done so in former years, and the Board projected its program on that basis. Imagine the disappointment that followed when the Board discovered that its receipts in 1930 had dropped over $70,000 compared with those of the previous year. For the first time, in October of that year, the Board was unable to pay its Missionaries promptly on the first of the month. The year 1931 showed a decided decrease from the receipts of 1930, and today the Board finds itself facing not only an increased deficit amounting to $285,000, but also with no funds to pay its Missionaries. In spite of many opportunities for aggressive work the Board is obliged to stand still and wait for the Church to supply the means.

The Board of Home Missions has been a savior of many interests in the Church. During its long history of over a century it has added more than 700 Churches; it has saved many a struggling congregation; it has saved the great northwest to the Reformed Church; it has planted and supported all the work on the Pacific Coast and in Canada; it has made possible the new Catawba College in North Carolina; it has fostered every one of the eighty Hungarian congregations belonging to the Reformed Church; it has invested $1,450,000 in Mission properties and has projected practically all the work of Evangelism and of Social Service in the Reformed Church. It has made it possible for at least 250 ministers to have fields of labor and an adequate salary. And upon the extension of this work is dependent the future supply of ministers. If the Board finds itself unable to open up new work, as has been the case for the last two years, there will come a time, in the near future, when graduates of our Theological Seminaries will not be able to find fields of labor and when in consequence choice young men will hesitate to enter the Christian ministry.

THE JAPANESE LANGUAGE SCHOOL OF THE

So basic is the work of Home Missions that any curtailment of its operations must prove disastrous to the life of the entire denomination. Whatever else, therefore, happens in the Church the work of Home Missions must not be allowed to lag or to fail.

A budget of half a million dollars for Home Missions in a great denomination like ours is not an exorbitant amount. When this sum is distributed among our 355,000 members the per capita is exceedingly small. It amounts to about three cents a week! Is the establishing of Christ's Kingdom in America worth that much? Are conditions so terrible in the country that our people cannot contribute that much? Is it hard times or hard hearts that we must face today? We have about 100,000 men in the Reformed Church. If each man would contribute only the price of a five cent cigar daily for one year we would raise in the Reformed Church $1,800,000.

This statement to the Church this year takes the form of an appeal because the necessity for help is urgent and cannot be longer delayed. The Church will come to the relief of the Board when it knows and realizes the facts of the situation. There need to be some large gifts laid upon the altar, though the small gifts of the poor will not be despised. Men and women should provide liberally in their wills for this work, so that they may help to carry it on after they have gone.

The Board will accept annuities and will pay interest during the lifetime of the donor. The Board solicits Church-building Funds of $500 and more to assist worthy Missions in securing adequate church buildings.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the General Synod has been responding nobly in aiding the Board in its financial stress.

The Board has economized at every turn and decreased its expenditures by more than $28,000 in one year. But it has done so largely at the expense of the work itself which should have been enlarged and augmented instead of diminished. We are hopeful that the year 1932 will bring with it a new zeal for this work and a large outpouring of money to support it.

The work of Foreign Missions is just this: the going out from the Church at home over the world, of a body of men and women knowing Christ, seeking contact with men so as to make Christ known among them in the deepest intimacies of their life, and thus planting the seed of the divine life that will bear fruit to the glory of God.

* * *

The purpose of Missions stands sure, and its accomplishment is certain, because it is the carrying out of a God-given commission. The promises of God are Yea and Amen. Christ will reconcile all things unto Himself. He will in His own time usher in the full victory of the everlasting kingdom. If it were not so, He would have told His followers.

There is a crisis on in the whole world and Christians must face it and help to settle it. Look where you will and you will see that things are not right. The only cure for a sin-sick and restless world is the grace and truth of our Lord and Saviour. It is a condition that only spiritual power can remedy. This the leaders of the Church and the nations should know by this time and make every effort to apply it. Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life."

The foreign missionary has an influence at this time that the faithful men and women of 50 years ago did not enjoy. Now as then he is the bearer of a message from God to the people across the seas, but the conditions under which he labors are so different and far more difficult. When William Carey went to India there were no friction points between Great Britain and India. When Guido Verbeck went to Japan there was no unjust immigration act, excluding Japanese from the United States. When Robert Morrison went to China, no marines or gunboats lay in the Shanghai harbor. Our missionaries are the messengers of peace and goodwill in the face of all political misunderstanding. To say that there is no longer any need for missionaries reveals an ignorance that is pitiable.

* * *

Urgent calls are constantly coming from our missionaries for more workers, but the Board of Foreign Missions is helpless to heed them. Our Church has fewer missionaries at work now than we had five years ago. This is an alarming situation to those who receive the appeals and know the needs. Besides, the contributions from the members have been less than in former years, and are therefore insufficient to pay the regular expenses of our Missions in Japan, China and Mesopotamia.

The critical situation in China and the interruption, to some extent, of the work of the Missions in certain provinces instead of disheartening us, as workers and supporters, should give us a better idea of the vastness of the task and of the little help that we are giving to accomplish it. So far as human wisdom can discern, the Christians of America are face to face with a situation in China that has no parallel in Church history. Will they accept the challenge and improve the opportunity?

The Gospel message has been broadcast for a number of years in the leading newspapers of North Japan by a committee representing six Missions — Baptist, Congregationalist, Disciples, Evangelical, Methodist and Reformed. Dr. Christopher Noss has been most active in this work. He says, "New inquirers applying for literature have been increasing year by year—1,294 in 1926 and 2,490 in 1930." One Dollar invested in Newspaper Evangelism will send the glad tidings to 1,000 readers.

Our Japan Mission has a rule to pay two-thirds of the cost of a chapel if the local church members will provide the other third. This latter condition has already been complied with at the following places:

Azabu, Tokyo	$6,000 Chapel
Urawa	$6,000 Chapel and Parsonage
Kitakata	$4,000 Chapel and Parsonage
Kawamata	$1,575 Lot

Are there no members in our Church who will pay for one of these projects as a memorial to their loved ones in Heaven?

North Japan College held its Fortieth Annual Commencement last March. Of the 145 graduates from the College and the Middle School, 83, or about 57%, went out as avowed Christians. The general average of Christian graduates for all Protestant Christian schools for boys and young men, according to a recent survey, is about 25%.

In spite of the severe economic depression the enrollment for Miyagi College was a little better than last year. There were 34 decisions to enter the Christian life during the evangelistic campaign in December. Fifty-six of the 72 graduates were Christians.

In his fine report on North Japan College, Dr. Schneder says:

"May the gifts of the people of the Home Church be accompanied by their prayers that this Christian school, founded in faith and hope forty-five years ago by Brothers Hoy and Oshikawa, may do an even greater and more abiding work for God in Japan."

Huping Middle School and Ziemer Girls' School at Yochow City, and Eastview Boys' School and Chenteh Girls' School at Shenchowfu, report a good year, in spite of the invasion of soldiers and bandits. The enrollment was almost double that of last year. Bible study and chapel attendance are most encouraging. Huping stresses rural training. The loss by death of its Principal, Franklin T. Gwoh, is keenly felt.

A great need in our hospital work in China is that of two physicians and two nurses. To show how great this need is our nurses at Yochow City, Miss Alice E. Traub and Miss Sara E. Krick, and at Shenchowfu, Miss A. Katherine Zierdt, ministered to over 7,000 patients last year.

Foreign Mission Day is February 14, 1932. Remember the day; observe it in every congregation and Sunday-school, and bring a special offering for the treasury of the Board.

The evangelistic work in China has felt the influence of the Five Year Movement and presents unusual opportunities. No disturbances were experienced in the Shenchow and Yungsui fields. There are 26 Chinese workers. In the Yochow field the missionaries faced many difficulties. The new awakening among the people is encouraging. More than 130 signified their intention to join Bible classes. There are 25 Chinese workers.

The American School for Boys in Baghdad enrolled 438 students the past year. Since August 1, 1930, the school is under the care and support of our Board of Foreign Missions. The Board of Managers consists of Dr. Calvin K. Staudt, Principal, Rev. David D. Baker, Vice-Principal, and Rev. F. Nelson Schlegel, Secretary-Treasurer. This school is in need of buildings to insure its future success.

The United Mission in Mesopotamia has opened a new station in the city of Kirkuk, the center of the rich oil fields. Rev. and Mrs. Jefferson C. Glessner, are the missionaries in charge. Miss Effie M. Honse is Acting Principal of the Girls' School at Baghdad, which reports 140 students.

There are five union educational institutions in China, with which the Reformed Church co-operates—Yale Union Middle School at Changsha, Fuh-Siang Girls' Middle School at Changsha, Central China College at Wuchang, Central China Union Theological Seminary at Wuchang, and the Girls' College at Nanking. To these schools our Mission sends students.

One way to know of the work in Japan, China and Mesopotamia is by individuals, societies, Sunday-schools and congregations helping to pay the tuition of a student or the salary of a teacher in one of our schools, or the support of a woman evangelist, a native pastor, an entire station, or a foreign missionary. Such special gifts greatly aid in carrying on the work. Write to the Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, who will gladly give you information.

THINK THIS OVER

There is always something unspeakably pathetic about the last will and testament of so-called "rich" folks who leave not a penny to religion, charity, or education, but bestow all their material wealth upon their family and relatives, many of whom already have more than is good for them. It is not necessary to prove that in many cases such wealth comes to be a curse rather than a blessing. The pages of history and our newspaper accounts are full of such instances. But altogether apart from the possible danger involved in leaving millions to children as well as adults, such a will is usually a demonstration of the lack of wisdom of the testator. It is heartening to know that an increasing number have recognized the folly of such a disposition of great wealth, and they are putting it to the best possible uses, in statesmanlike efforts to make life happier and better for the generations yet to come.

LEADING EVENTS OF THE YEAR

Announcement was made a year ago of the election of Rev. Dr. Henry I. Stahr, Hanover, Pa., as Executive Secretary of the Board. Late in the fall of 1930, Dr. Stahr assumed the many and varied duties which are now his.

On January 6, 1931, representatives of the Boards of Christian Education, Home Missions, Foreign Missions, and of the Department of Missionary Education and of the Woman's Missionary Society of the General Synod met and organized the Advisory Council of Missionary Education.

Each educational institution of our Church, in response to the Board's invitation to do so, has named a representative to serve on the Advisory Council of Higher Institutions of Learning, which will function in an advisory way in what concerns the training of the youth of the Church for usefulness, both in the Church at large and in the local congregation, and also in seeking to make more effective the life service challenge to our young people.

Two interesting publications were issued by the Board during the past year, one entitled "The Workers' Conference" and the other "A Temperance Code Discussion Outline." The first named will be found very helpful in forwarding the organizing and conducting of Workers' Conferences in local Church Schools. The Temperance Code Discussion Outline was prepared with the collaboration of the Social Service Commission of the General Synod. It is designed for group study of the temperance problem. Many favorable comments have been received concerning these publications both from within our Church and from elsewhere.

DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS AND REAL ESTATE

In a time of depression such as the one through which we have been passing, the Church at large is naturally interested to know what effect general conditions have had upon the business operations of the Board. It is gratifying to be able to report that while there was a decline of $9,137.41 in the Board's gross sales during the past year in the Book, Periodical and Supply Departments, the year was completed on the credit side of the ledger, although with profits considerably less than in former years. In the Real Estate Department receipts were also somewhat smaller than formerly, because there has been more vacant space in the Schaff Building than usual. Nevertheless the year closed with a small net profit.

It is a well known fact that the "Reformed Church Messenger" is published with a large annual deficit which has to be met largely out of the receipts of the Business Department. In spite of the depression the deficit was increased by only $251.06 over that of last year.

A great deal of credit for the conservative business policy of the Board, which has enabled it to meet the stress and strain of the present business situation without suffering more, is due to Rev. Albert S. Bromer, D.D., Head of the Department of Business and Real Estate. Dr. Bromer has been connected with the Board for twenty-seven years.

THE DEPARTMENT OF HOME AND CHURCH

Visible progress has been made in Christian Education in the local church. More adequate worship programs are being planned to deepen the spiritual life of our schools, better lesson material is being introduced, new Church School buildings are being erected and old buildings adapted to the newer needs through remodeling or the better use of existing spaces. Workers' conferences and leadership training classes are increasing. The purpose of Christian education is becoming more sharply defined in the popular mind, and emphasis is being placed more and more on a fully rounded Christian faith and practice.

Children's Work

The work this year indicates more than ever that the Church is according children their rightful place. Ministers everywhere are reaching out for programs graded to meet the different age groups. Schools are gradually learning to use the freer curriculum and are abandoning stilted and stereotyped programs. In place of the "Junior Church" we find churches planning an expanded session of the Church School; thus giv-

REV. A. S. BROMER, D.D., Secretary
Department of Business and Real Estate

ing their children at least two hours of Christian Education. Provision is made for this expanded session in the Heidelberg Departmental Graded Lessons. Many schools have swung away from teaching "just materials," and are making the experiences of the child the center of all teaching.

This newer emphasis also has an effect on buildings. When the child becomes supreme, the realization will grow that children, from two years to nine years, or possibly twelve years of age, cannot be placed in the same room with any expectation of good results.

Special emphasis this year is given to organizing Parent-Teacher Associations, where together the natural leaders of little children will discuss problems of adjustment. One day conferences are being planned in the Classes. This will help to unify our denominational program.

There is still much confusion regarding lesson courses. It may be wise to remind schools that the only lessons in the Children's Division, issued by the Reformed Church are, (1) Departmental Graded Lessons for Beginners, Primary and Juniors. A teacher's quarterly is issued for each department. For the Primary and Beginners Departments, Picture Story Lessons and a large Picture Roll or Card for use of the children are also issued. For the Juniors a quarterly of "Work and Study" is provided for each child. (2) The Uniform Lessons for Primary and Juniors. A quarterly is issued for the Juniors, and a paper, "Sunshine" for the Primary children.

The departments are recognized in the Heidelberg Teacher and teaching procedure is suggested.

Young People's Work

While there is still an apparent lack of trained leadership in Young People's Work in our churches, which must be remedied through camps and training schools and local training enterprises, there is evident progress in developing among young people a sense of responsibility for the success of the church, and noteworthy activities are being carried on by many local young people's groups.

The Young People's Department is publishing a quarterly bulletin "News for Leaders of Youth" which is sent free to pastors and to the secretaries of the young people's organizations of the local churches. In co-operation with all other denominations, the Department is recommending the following special emphases for 1931-1932:

Adult Work

This work lags for lack of a full-time Director of the Department. Children's Work and Young People's Work have been greatly emphasized, not more than they should be, but the conviction is forcing itself upon us that if we are actually to strengthen our homes we must take much more seriously the problem of adult education, for most of the evils in the home, church, state and society can be traced back to parents who do not care, or who do not know how to deal with children so that they may really live Christian lives.

Editorial Work

The Board recently transferred its Sunday School Editorial Department to the Department of Home and Church. Our publications include the International Uniform Lessons, the Departmental Graded Lessons and the Illustrated Weekly Sunday School Papers, edited by Rev. Edward A. G. Hermann. The following facts regarding the circulation of the lesson materials will be found interesting:

Uniform Lessons	1,495,374 copies
Departmental Graded Lessons	2,703,203 copies
Closely Graded Lessons	229,157 copies

So rapid are the changes in curriculum material that our Staff recently joined the Presbyterian Board of Christian Education in a Curriculum Conference lasting ten days to consider the revision of the Departmental Graded Lessons used in the schools of the two denominations.

From time to time book lists on general Church School and departmental work are prepared and issued, as well as departmental bulletins and leaflets on Children's and Young People's Work. In addition to these denominational publicity materials, there are available leading helps issued by other denominations, and particularly those of the International Council of Religious Education, which our Board with the other forty-two denominations in the Council has a share in producing. The following important pieces of educational literature prepared by leaders of our denomination were circulated by our Board and called forth much favorable comment.

"The Westward Expansion of the Reformed Church"—Theodore P. Bolliger.

"The Holy Spirit in Religious Education"—Nevin C. Harner.

"Conversion and Camps"—Nevin C. Harner.

Field Promotion Work

Encouraging progress has been made in the co-operative work carried on between Synods and Classes and the Board of Christian Education. Four of the Synods held annual conferences on Christian Education, which have great value since they serve as a clearing house for report and discussion on the best things being done educationally within the Synod, and for passing on information and help available from the Board of Christian Education for the local churches.

Two Classes—East Ohio and West Susquehanna—have entered into a special co-operative relationship in field promotion with the Board of Christian Education. The purpose of this co-operative effort is to devise a workable plan whereby a Classical Committee on Christian Education may actually assume responsibility for promoting, so far as this is possible under the circumstances, the cause of Christian Education in the schools within the bounds of the Classis.

At Calvary Reformed Church, Bethlehem, Pa., Rev. William Van R. Seltzer, Pastor, and at the English Reformed Church, Wooster, Ohio, Rev. J. E. Youngen, Pastor, the Board of Christian Education through its Educational Staff has been active during the year in the attempt to work out co-operatively with officers and teachers, plans tending to develop these Church Schools to their utmost educational ability. In the nature of the case, not many schools can be dealt with in this way. But it is believed that the detailed report of what happened in these schools when published and circulated will help all schools in a more thorough-going way than is otherwise possible.

Side by side with this intensive type of field work, the Board representatives carry on the usual type of field promotion through correspondence, visits to local churches, conferences, institutes and conventions.

In national, state and city work, our Educational Staff has made large and important contributions looking toward wise and helpful inter-denominational Church School activity.

Not only has the Board contributed much to inter-denominational co-operation, but it has received much. The smaller the denomination the greater the need of these inter-denominational relationships, if our local churches are to receive the help needed to keep them progressively improving.

Field Workers

The Board has a field worker in Ohio in the person of Mrs. Anna L. Miller and a Director of Religious Education in Northwest Synod in the person of Dr. E. G. Krampe. Anyone who has kept in touch with the work Mrs. Miller is doing in Ohio will be amazed at the large number of important contacts made with the local schools, the Classes, Synods and other denominations with whom we are in co-operation in Ohio. Only the schools and persons helped can appreciate how valuable is the service rendered by the Board in this way.

Dr. Krampe has a wide and difficult field to cover. But his work has also met with signal success through the personal contacts made with pastors, consistories, superintendents and other officers and teachers, leadership training classes and young people's organizations. His visits to the Classes are particularly helpful and valuable. Outstanding this year has been the organization of the Heidelberg League of Northwest Synod. During the spring months nearly one thousand young people gathered together at Classical Young People's Conferences and carried out a program having unusual educational significance.

Vacation and Week-day Church Schools

We wish it were possible to give the exact number of Vacation Schools carried on during the past year, but accurate statistics, always difficult to get, are especially difficult in this field because these schools are conducted by individual churches. Others are units in inter-denominational community enterprises. But more important than numbers is the higher purpose and type of work done in these schools. Undoubtedly in most cases more thorough-going Christian education is taking place in vacation schools than in the Sunday Schools, because of the better trained teachers that can be secured and because of the intensive nature of the work made possible by the daily session of longer duration.

CHURCH AND CHURCH SCHOOL SUPPLIES DEPARTMENT,

Statistics regarding Week-day Schools of Religious Education throughout the regular school term are even more difficult to secure. The number varies according to geographical location. In Ohio, because of the favorable legal status, schools are more numerous than elsewhere. Here the Reformed Church has a goodly number of pupils enrolled, usually in connection with a local inter-denominational enterprise. In Wisconsin, where parochial schools still exist in large numbers, Week-day Religious Education is carried on in many instances as a regular part of the local church program. In states like Pennsylvania where the question of legality of the use of public school time is still in question, week-day schools are few in number.

DEPARTMENT OF LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Leadership Training in the Local Church

The attempt has been made to improve leadership training work in the local church through special attention to the monthly meeting of the teachers and officers. The leadership training classes now organized in our churches are conducted with more care and usually with a larger reference library than in former years.

The year has been marked by the organization of a new Summer School at New Glarus, Wisconsin. The enrollment was very encouraging. Much of the labor of promoting and organizing the school was done by Dr. E. G. Krampe.

The Cedar Crest Summer School at Allentown was transferred to Camp Mensch Mill and combined with the Young People's Leadership Training Conference. This proved wise in every respect. The attendance at the Young People's Conference was 99.

The Camp at Mensch Mill for Seniors, 15-17 years of age, exceeded all expectations. There were 117 delegates representing 65 churches and

LEADERSHIP TRAINING SCHOOL GROUP,
NEW GLARUS, WIS.

4 states. The Camp was unable to accommodate all who applied.

The Dayton Summer School continued its good history despite the economic depression. The attendance equalled the high record reached in 1930. 86 students enrolled.

The coming Church year has been designated by the denominations co-operating in the work of the International Council of Religious Education for a special emphasis on leadership training. The Leadership Training Department has prepared literature and made plans which will make this emphasis meaningful in our local congregations.

Student Work

By action of the General Synod of Indianapolis, student work, which was formerly directed by the Board of Home Missions, was assigned to the Board of Christian Education. There are more Reformed Church boys and girls in non-Reformed educational institutions in and near Philadelphia than anywhere else. Here Rev. Clayton H. Ranck is doing good work, backed by the Board of Christian Education and the Reformed Churches of Philadelphia. Our other student pastors,—Rev. Albert S. Asendorf, Pennsylvania State College, Rev. E. Bruce Jacobs, Ohio State University, Rev. Calvin M. Zenk, University of Wisconsin,—all report excellent results from their efforts to keep in touch with our students. Pastors can assist these student pastors greatly if they will inform them about present or prospective students at the respective institutions.

THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF

General Synod's Board of Ministerial Relief is the "Big Brother Board" of our Church. This is the Board that cares lovingly for our aged and disabled ministers and the widows of our ministers to the extent of its ability. This Board is a true friend of our ministers from the beginning of their careers to the sunset of their lives, and therefore to their widows and minor orphan children.

School Life of a Minister

The Reformed Church believes in an educated ministry. Therefore a minister usually spends 12 years in the public schools, 4 years in college, and 3 years in the theological seminary, a total of 19 years in educating himself for our ministry. He, moreover, spends from $4000 to $6000 on his education, accumulates little during his school days, and generally enters the Gospel ministry with a school debt, which it takes him years to pay.

Active Pastorate of a Minister

Rev. Dr. Charles E. Schaeffer, President of General Synod, says: "The work of a Minister of the Gospel is stupendous. A minister not only preaches several times a week and visits his members, but also baptizes the infants, instructs the youth, confirms the catechumens, encourages the discouraged, helps the helpless, gives Christian burial to the dead, and is the inspiration and often the leader of every organization in his Church. Besides all this, a Minister of the Gospel helps our hospitals, our homes for the aged, our orphanages, and our other philanthropic institutions; promotes our educational institutions, our civic enterprises, and every good movement in our nation; and is a partner in the work of home missions, foreign missions, Christian education, the eradication of evil, the promotion of peace, and of every other good work. Surely, because of the great service our ministers render the world, they should be supported by our Church when they become aged or disabled."

The Disability and Death of a Minister

Some of our ministers are disabled after a few years of service and others after a number of years. A goodly number of our ministers are between 70 and 80 years of age, and others between 80 and 90. A few are over 90. The oldest minister of our Church, now living, is 97. Moreover some of our ministers pass away after they have served the Church one or more years, and eventually our Heavenly Father takes all of them unto Himself. After many years of personal contact with our ministers we have discovered that 95% of our ministers, when they become disabled or aged, cannot support themselves. When a minister dies and leaves a widow, she also cannot support herself. Thus our veteran ministers and the widows of our ministers look to our Church to support them, at least in part. According to the teaching of Jesus and the highest social standards of our time, it is the duty of our Church to support her aged and disabled servants.

ELDER EDWARD DIRKS
Elected Member of the Board, 1931

Some Examples

A few examples, of the needy condition of our ministers and the widows of our ministers, are as follows:

A needy minister, 90. Salary never over $500.

A poor widow, 73, confined to bed.

A destitute minister, 57, hopelessly paralyzed.

A widow, whose only livelihood is Ministerial Relief.

A blind minister, whose wife is old and feeble.

There are several hundred more ministers and widows of ministers, who are equally deserving and in need of Ministerial Relief.

The Big Brother Board

The Board of Ministerial Relief, which is the "Big Brother Board" of our Church, has been established by the General Synod to help care for our aged and disabled ministers and the widows of our ministers. The Board cares for these servants of the Church lovingly and to the extent of the money our Church gives it. We, however, regret that the Board cannot take care of our veteran ministers and their widows as it should, because of a lack of funds. We further regret that because of the increased number of those helped and the decreased receipts from the Apportionment, the Board was compelled to reduce the help given this year. This works a hardship upon our veteran ministers and their widows. This should not be the case. Our Church should support our veterans of the Cross adequately.

Relief Annuitants and their Annuities

In the Relief Department your Board gave annuities to 269 annuitants in 1930, 16 more than in 1929, and 51 more than in 1928, and the largest number for all time. Your Board paid $77,524.14 to the 269 annuitants, $5,105.68 more than in 1929, and $17,210.29 more than in 1928, and the largest amount for all time. The apportionment for Relief received during 1930 was $68,412.01, which was $2,290.23 less than in 1929, and $7,415.74 less than in 1928. Thus in 1930 your Board gave $9,112.13 more in annuities than it received from the apportionment. For this reason your Board can say again very truthfully that every cent we received from the Apportionment we gave to our veteran ministers and their widows, and considerably more besides this.

Sustentation Annuitants and their Annuities

During 1930 your Board paid $8,935.78 to 83 annuitants in the Sustentation Fund as follows: To 5 seventy-year ministers, $931.39; to 23 disabled ministers, $3,047.18; to 53 widows, $4,846.49; and to 3 orphans, representing 2 families, $110.72. The annuities of the Sustentation Fund are at present 49% of their maximum, because our Church has completed our Sustentation Fund only 49%. Our Church should have completed our Sustentation Fund this year, and if it had completed it the annuities given to the 83 annuitants would have been $18,236.00, instead of $8,935.78.

Finances of the Board

The finances of the Board of Ministerial Relief are based on sound economic principles and are well managed. The six accounts are carefully kept, checked up, and balanced each month, are always open for inspection, and carefully audited. All annuities are paid promptly in advance. The funds are invested in securities of the highest character. We throw every possible safeguard around our investments. The overhead expenses are a little over 4% of our grand total receipts. Moreover not one dollar of overhead expenses at any time, since your Board opened its office in Philadelphia in 1920, has been taken from the contributions received by us from our Church. Besides this, we have no debts of any kind, and never had any debts.

Recent Outstanding Achievements

1. Your Board has made gratifying progress along all lines last year.
2. We helped more veteran ministers and their widows last year than we ever helped.
3. We paid more to our veterans of the Cross last year than we ever paid.
4. The investments of your Board have increased satisfactorily, and all are safe and sound.
5. We now pay a widow of a minister $100 immediately upon the death of her husband.
6. The rules, governing annuity bonds, have been revised in accordance with those approved by the most expert authorities.
7. In order to throw another safeguard around the Ministerial Relief investments, your Board decided to open a Custody Account with the large Philadelphia National Bank.

THE SUMMER MISSIONARY CONFERENCES

COLLEGEVILLE SUMMER MISSIONARY CONFERENCE, 1931

"Throughout the world there is a sense of insecurity and instability. Ancient religions are undergoing modification, and in some regions dissolution, as scientific and commercial development alter the current of men's thought. Institutions regarded with age-long veneration are discarded or called in question; well-established standards of moral conduct are brought under criticism; and countries called Christian feel the stress as truly as the peoples of Asia and Africa."

"Amid wide-spread indifference and immersion in material concerns we also find everywhere, now in noble forms and now in license or extravagance, a great yearning, especially among the youth of the world, for the full and untrammelled expression of personality, for spiritual leadership and authority, for reality in religion, for social justice, for human brotherhood, for international peace."

"In this world, bewildered and groping for its way, Jesus Christ has drawn to Himself the attention and admiration of mankind as never before. He stands before men as plainly greater than Western civilization, greater than the Christianity that the world has come to know."

These are the opening sentences of the findings of the great International Missionary Council held at Jerusalem during Eastertide of 1928. The Summer Missionary Conferences of 1931 were concerned primarily with the consideration of the message of Christianity for such a world as this. No more important theme could challenge the attention of the Church than that of the message and program of Christianity adequate to meet the demands and the needs of this very world in which we live. The delegates of the Conferences spent days in seeking the solution of modern world problems in the spirit of Jesus. As a result of a week of study and discussion at the Conferences, many of our young people went back to their home congregations with a new vision of a new world and a new determination that the Reformed Church should have her just share in the making of a Christlike world.

Under the auspices of the Department of Missionary Education, Rev. A. V. Casselman, D.D., Secretary, eight Conferences were held last year, as follows: Pittsburgh, Pa., at Shady Side Academy; Brooklyn, Ind., at Bethany Park; Frederick, Md., at Hood College; Tiffin, Ohio, at Heidelberg College; Salisbury, N. C., at Catawba College; Collegeville, Pa., at Ursinus College; Plymouth, Wis., at Mission House; Buffalo, N. Y., at Grace Church.

There is no more important or engaging subject before the Church at the present time than the present crisis in Missions. China is the largest, and in many respects the most important mission field in the world. The missionary crisis is most spectacular in this nation, and here is where we, as a Reformed Church, come into most intimate and perplexing contact with the situation. It will be interesting to note here that the interdenominational foreign-mission theme for study during the year 1932 is "China." This ought to be of special interest to the members of the Reformed Church.

It was feared that the financial depression of the past year would result in diminished attendance at the 1931 Conferences; but these fears proved to be unfounded. The attendance at the Conferences of 1931, in some instances, was larger than the preceding year, and all of the Conferences were practically the same size as last year. This may be said with perfect truth that never before were the delegates so carefully selected and so earnest. Through the influence of these young people the congregations of the Reformed Church ought to be richer in world-wide experience and more thoroughly prepared to meet and solve present-day problems both at home and abroad.

THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF GENERAL SYNOD

SYNOD

The Woman's Missionary Society of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, a denomination that was in reality once a foreign mission, was organized June 2, 1887, with Mrs. Elvira S. Yockey, Xenia, Ohio, President. Mrs. Yockey was instrumental in bringing together into a Woman's Missionary Society the first group of women in the denomination, February 20, 1877. "Simple as this sounds it was accomplished only by much labor and in spite of criticism from the Church at large, where it was even then considered unseemly for women to engage in public work and take a part in open meetings." "The first public recognition of woman's work was made by the Pittsburgh Synod." In 1883 the first Classical Missionary Society was organized in Illinois. In 1886 the first Synodical (Pittsburgh) Society was formed, "followed soon after by the recognition of the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod".

"The first work undertaken was: Special care of the Sioux City, Iowa, Mission, the building of a Girls' School, Sendai, Japan, and the support of the missionaries there."

The lowest amount ever raised by the first society in Xenia in one year was $44. It is still active. The number of organizations has grown to 740 with a membership of about 23,000.

For some years "The Woman's Journal" was its official organ. "The Outlook of Missions" is now published jointly with the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions.

In 1896 work among children was begun and "The Mission Band Helper" was published. This work now numbers about 300 Bands; membership 9,000. "The Helper" has been discontinued.

In June, 1911, Miss Gertrude Cogan became Field Secretary; she was supported by the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions and the Woman's Missionary Society. At that time five new departments were formed and much progress reported. Depositories of Literature were established in Tiffin, Ohio, and Philadelphia.

In 1912 the Society was enrolled in both the Federation of Woman's Boards of Foreign Missions and the Council of Women for Home Missions. "Our membership in these interdenominational groups in the course of years has proved a great help and inspiration to our own work."

In 1914 a Cabinet of officers and departmental secretaries was formed, "an office opened in the Reformed Church Building, Philadelphia, as the headquarters" and work among girls was begun with the appointment of a Young Woman's Missionary Auxiliary Secretary.

The Field Secretary resigned January 1, 1919, and Miss Carrie M. Kerschner, "missionary among the Japanese, was chosen as Executive Secretary," beginning her work September 1, 1919. In 1920 an Educational Commission, whose chief responsibility is the preparation and publication of leaflets, was formed. Mrs. Edwin W. Lentz is the Director.

In 1921 a Field Secretary of Young Women's Missionary Auxiliaries was elected. In 1923 the name of the Auxiliary was changed to Girls' Missionary Guilds. The present Secretary is Miss Ruth Heinmiller, with office at Cleveland, Ohio, to which place the Tiffin Depository was moved in 1926. There are 421 Guilds; 6,325 membership.

In September, 1925, a paid Secretary of Literature was employed. Miss Greta P. Hinkle is the present Secretary. In 1929 she also became editor of the Woman's Department of "The Outlook of Missions".

The promotional work is carried on through District Synodical and Classical Societies and the following departments: Stewardship, Thank Offering, Christian Citizenship, Girls' Missionary Guild, Mission Band, Life Members and Members in Memoriam, Literature, Organization and Membership, Director of the Educational Commission and Secretary of Printing. The General Synodical Society is incorporated, meets triennially and is officered by these elective officers: President, 1st and 2nd Vice-Presidents, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer and Statistical Secretary. These officers, with four additional members, constitute a Board of Trustees. This group and the District Synodical presidents form an Executive Committee. The Executive Committee, all departmental and paid secretaries constitute a Cabinet which meets annually.

The Society is affiliated with the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Foreign Missions by representation (two members and the president), with vote, and disburses its funds through their respective officers.

The work of the organization is evangelistic in all fields; educational among the women, girls and boys in northern Japan; educational and medical in Shenchow, Yochow and Ginling College, China; educational in Mesopotamia and supports kindergarten and young people's work in Japanese Missions, Los Angeles and San Francisco; Indian School, Neillsville, Wisconsin; support of American and Hungarian Deaconesses. Many loan and gift Church Building Funds in amounts ranging from $500 to $5,000

Scholarship Funds are available for girls preparing for full-time Christian service and for missionaries home on furlough. An Educational Aid for Service Committee has charge of this work. Contributions are made to Christian Literature, Religious Work Directors in Government Indian Schools, Farm and Caninery Migrant Work, Foreign Missions Conference and Conference on Cause and Cure of War.

Mrs. L. L. Anewalt, Allentown, Pa., is the present President and Mrs. R. W. Herbster, Prospect, Ohio, Treasurer. Both of these women and a host of others give their time and service gratuitously to the expansion of the Kingdom as assumed by the Woman's Missionary Society of the Reformed Church in the United States.

The present address of Headquarters is 416 Schaff Bldg., 1505 Race St., Philadelphia.

LEADERSHIP

Seek thou the Saviour's skill
To banish fear,
That thou may'st friend and shepherd be
And ever near
A wandering humanity,
For furious is the sound of ill
In every ear;
And fearless men are needed much
To bring God near.

OUR ORPHANS' HOMES

BETHANY ORPHANS' HOME, WOMELSDORF, PA.

The Rev. Henry E. Gebhard, Superintendent

CONFIRMATION CLASS, 1931

BETHANY

The passing away of the Beloved Superintendent Emeritus, the Rev. Wilson F. More, D.D., reminds us of that heartless visitor who entered many Reformed families last year and called someone away but left in the care of our Church, orphan children. During the past year, Bethany has cared for more orphan children than any time in her history—the total being 247. Of the thirty-four children admitted last year, only two know what it is to have a living mother, and she is an employee of our Home. There are seven more equally needy children who have been found worthy by the Board and are waiting for the word to come, but there is no room.

As soon as the Reed Baby Cottage is completed, more children can be admitted. I am sure many fathers will be able to thank Mr. Reed for his generosity in erecting and furnishing this cottage. While the cottage will fill a great need in caring for the needs of Eastern Synod's children, some people forget that it will cost over $4,000 a year to maintain such a cottage with competent help.

OH GENTLE CHRIST

Oh gentle Christ, I like to think
Of Your humility. . .
When folks so proud, so oversure,
Intolerant, I see.

I picture, too, Your tenderness
With one who's done a wrong. . .
When in this selfish world I see
Oppression by the strong.

ST. PAUL'S ORPHANS' AND OLD FOLKS' HOME, GREENVILLE, PA.

Rev. A. M. Keifer, D.D., Superintendent

The Home at Greenville centers itself largely around the personality of its Superintendent, Rev. A. M. Keifer, D.D. This is true of most institutions where the Superintendent or President presided over the affairs of the institution over a long period of years. Dr. Keifer was elected as Superintendent of St. Paul's Orphans' Home, July 6th, 1909. Since then he has exercised the duties of his office with marked ability and to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors. He not only endeared himself to the many children under his care and guidance but he won the love, confidence and esteem of the Synod under whose supervision the Home functions. At the time of the writing of this article, Dr. and Mrs. Keifer are in Japan visiting their daughter, Mrs. I. G. Nace. The Board of Directors granted him a six months' leave of absence.

During the year the Home cared for 128 children. The schools were conducted in conjunction with the public school system last year. This was an innovation but the experiment proved quite successful.

The Old Folks' Home was established in June, 1927. We have a limited capacity for guests and at present have some on our waiting list. Since the founding of the Home we have cared for fifteen guests. This work is greatly needed

FORT WAYNE ORPHANS' HOME, FORT WAYNE, IND.

Rev. J. F. Tapy, Superintendent

The Fort Wayne Orphans' Home, located at Fort Wayne, Ind., one of the benevolent institutions of the Reformed Church, looks to the four Synods of the Church—The Ohio Synod, The German Synod of the East, the Northwest Synod, and the Synod of the Mid-West, for her support. Every Church in these four synods should feel an obligation toward this institution. Our support comes largely through the Christmas offerings, but we solicit individual gifts and bequests. Investigate our annuity plan of giving. Our family is its usual size, 105 children. These the Church has not neglected in the past year. We solicit your co-operation in the year before us. All money should be sent to Rev. J. F. Tapy, Box No. 45, Fort Wayne, Indiana, who is Superintendent and Treasurer.

"The Ladies' Aid" represents our older girls who are faithful in the kitchen, dining room and laundry.

The fine-looking lads, in the picture on the following page, are some of our farm helpers. They typify the splendid, sturdy manhood which this institution is developing.

FARM HELPERS

FORT WAYNE

GEO. W. AND AGNES HOFFMAN ORPHANAGE, LITTLESTOWN, PA.

Rev. A. P. Frantz, B.D., Superintendent

During the past two years, we received 29 children and dismissed 11 children. From May 30, 1930, to June 1, 1931, we cared for 80 children.

Our Heavenly Father has blessed us with good health. All our children are healthy, growing, eating heartily and are happy.

For many years, we were in need of a dining-hall and kitchen. Through the legacy of Miss Anna Bell Everhart, of Newport, Pa., we were able to build the much-needed dining-hall and kitchen. We also needed proper housing and living-rooms for our good cook and help. This need was met by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Home. They kindly and cheerfully agreed to pay for the necessary apartment-building which is part of the new dining-hall building. This new building was dedicated on Anniversary Day, August 27.

CLASS CONFIRMED, JULY, 1931

HOFFMAN

May the members and friends of our congregations always appreciate the services of consecrated men and women who, like the Christ, are taking the fatherless and the motherless and homeless into their hearts, and may the sweet faces of the dependent boys and girls be the benign appeal for the prayers, support and legacies of the members and friends of the Church.

NAZARETH ORPHANS' HOME, ROCKWELL, N. C.

Rev. W. H. McNairy, Superintendent

The present and future of the Home and those now in the Home claim our time and give us anxious moments.

We still hold our record of not a child having died while in the Home during the twenty-five years of its history. This speaks for itself as to whether the health of the children is well-looked after.

CONCERT CLASS OF 1931

NAZARETH

This year, the Christmas offerings fell behind other years and unless our friends rally during the balance of the year, we will have a large debt—which we do not want. To add to the small income the dry weather has hit us hard. We are in the midst of a dry streak in this part of Rowan County. Other years we raised most of the vegetables we used but this year we had very little. We did not seed our main potato crop. Someone will say that we must cut down our expenses, but friends, we have cut to the limit. If the Church wants the children stunted physically, mentally or religiously, the wrong man is at the head of this institution. We have been waiting for two years, owing to the depression, to get some equipment that we must have soon. Some of our good women are starting a campaign to get some of this for us. God bless them in their effort!

This is a terrible time to live—for those who have no faith. Some speak of dreaded revolutions in the dim and distant future. But to the clear-eyed it is patent that we are in the midst of far-reaching revolutions right now, in practically every department of human activity. And when “things seen and temporal” are crashing to pieces all around us, fortunate is he whose eyes are fixed upon “things unseen and eternal.” Even in the clash of world forces, the breakdown of cherished ideas and institutions and the apparent dissolution of some things we valued most highly, the man of faith can see signs of the effectual working of the Spirit of God. When worldlings are driven to despair and suicide, he who takes fast hold on the promise of our Heavenly Father can perceive signs of the coming morning. Have you faith enough to discover these manifestations in the life of our troublous time which prove that our God has not left Himself without witness in the lives of His people? Unless you can, you face futility and frustration, panic and pessimism. The remedy for every disease we have is religion, genuine religion. It was God-fearing folks who founded this Republic, God-fearing folks who gave us all that is worthwhile in America, and it will be God-fearing men and women who will preserve it, if it is to be preserved.

For the Aged and Infirm

Owned and operated by the Eastern Synod

Rev. F. H. Moyer, Superintendent

THIS BUILDING IS IN PROCESS OF ERECTION

A new building is now being erected at this Home, increasing its capacity from 30 to 100 beds.

Subscriptions to the Building and Endowment Fund total $170,000. By July, 1931, $135,000 had been paid into this fund; and the balance is due at the close of the year.

The contract for the erection of the new building, including heating, plumbing, electric work, refrigeration and kitchen equipment, was awarded for the sum of $152,866.73. Blue mountain native stone will be used and the building will be fire-proof throughout.

The first floor of the building will contain offices, lobby, dining room and serving kitchen, assembly room and other necessary appointments. The second floor will have bedrooms and sun parlors and the third floor will be used as a temporary infirmary. The fourth floor, tower section, will have a nurses' suite of four rooms, giving the building a capacity of fifty beds.

The dining room and the assembly room on the first floor of the old building will be converted into bedrooms, bringing the capacity of that building also up to fifty beds.

To pay for the present expansion of the Home and clear it of all indebtedness an additional $60,000 will be needed. The three hundred congregations of the Eastern Synod who have not yet contributed to the Building Fund are expected to furnish the funds needed to leave the Home debt free by the time the new building will be dedicated.

THE HOME FOR THE AGED OF THE REFORMED CHURCH, UPPER SANDUSKY, OHIO

John F. Hawk, Lafayette, Ind.
President

Troy A Dahn, 216 Hathaway St., Toledo, O.
Secretary-Treasurer

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Troup,
Upper Sandusky, O.
Superintendent and Matron

Ohio, Northwest and Mid-West Synods are jointly interested in this Home, originally sponsored by Toledo Classis of the old Central Synod, to whom was intrusted a legacy for the establishment of a home for aged people. Matthew and Jane Smith, brother and sister, not members of the Reformed Church, had lived together for many years, and in their fading days, saw the need of a place for such as they, on whom length of years and hard labor had laid their heavy hand, and outside help was needed. They bequeathed to Toledo Classis a fine farm for this purpose. The idea grew with fostering care and culture, till now the institution consists of four distinct units, and twenty-eight persons may find a comfortable and happy home.

The Home is located on the outskirts of a small but beautiful country village of four thousand people and the residents have the privilege and opportunity, when able, to attend the services of the church in the village, where they join in worship with the local congregation. For the accommodation of those unable to be taken to the village church, the resident minister comes to the Home at least once a month and conducts services especially adapted to their environment. Twice a year the Holy Communion is celebrated at the Home when all the residents, together, observe this sacred feast. Chapel facilities are lacking in the Home, but for the present the dining room can be used for the purpose quite satisfactorily. A fine spiritual atmosphere pervades the Home and peace and harmony generally prevail.

The Church needs to rally to the support of this institution. Designed not primarily as a wholly charitable undertaking, it is found quite difficult to provide for the helpless and indigent, when the financial support does not exist. A substantial endowment is needed to provide hospital facilities and to receive on an equal basis those who might not be able to meet the minimum financial requirements for admission. May the time come quickly when these folks may be received without question.

MR. AND MRS. JACOB BUEHRER—HOME FOR THE AGED

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Buehrer whose picture is presented to the whole Reformed Church, have been in the Home for 13 years, have been married more than 60 years, and although nearly 88 years of age, both are quite hearty and get about real well. Do they look worried?

REFORMED CHURCH HOME FOR THE AGED, WYNCOTE, PA.

Rev. Charles B. Alspach, D.D., Superintendent

This Home is a part of the program of the Eastern Synod in caring for the aged. You will find our annual report in the Minutes of Eastern Synod each year and the Work of the Home commended to the benevolence of the members of Synod in strong and urgent terms.

By action of our Board of Managers and with the unanimous approval of the Classis of Philadelphia as well as of Eastern Synod, our name was changed from the "Berger Memorial Home for the Aged." This is the expressed wish of Mr. and Mrs. Berger, the generous donors of the Home.

We are glad to report that except in cases of unemployment, sickness and death, our subscriptions are being paid with commendable promptness. It is our conviction that we will receive at least 95% of this money. This is very helpful and most encouraging to the Board of Managers.

We take great pleasure in caring for these aged people, members of our Churches, servants of God. Many of them spent years in the work of their respective congregations and now it is the privilege of the Church to take care of them. Religious services are held regularly on Sunday afternoon and on Wednesday morning of each week. We observe the Holy Communion four times a year. Our guests enjoy all of these and look forward to them with eagerness. The fine work that they do as an organized Home Department of the Sunday School would surprise a great many people.

Our Home is always full. As soon as there is a vacancy we admit from our waiting list, which is growing larger each year. Because of our beautiful surroundings and the well-built Home that we enjoy, our guests are a satisfied group.

We know of no finer avenue of Christian giving than this one. It is a most needy one and should appeal to all those who are blessed with large means. An investment here will mean comfort and rest to many an aged person. We should erect the first unit of our new building so that we could admit a larger number of those who should have a home of this kind. When you write your will, remember this Home for the Aged.

SIGNS OF GOD TODAY

Here are some thought-provoking "signs of God today," as discovered by one of the foremost Methodist pastors, Dr. Ernest F. Tittle:

- "1. A growing dissatisfaction with ugliness.
2. An increasing protest against the whole war system, military, political, and economic.
3. A heightened desire for better understanding and closer co-operation between nations and races.
4. A growing regard for truth.
5. An increasing demand for justice.

6. A spreading conviction that world-wide unemployment calls not only for charity, but for an honest, courageous examination of the causes of periodic depression and a determination to remove them.

7. A growing desire to build on this temporary stage, which we call the world, a lovelier, happier, more enduring civilization than mankind has ever known, and an increasing faith that it can be done and in the doing of it all sorts and conditions of men will find their chiefest joy."

FAIRVIEW PARK HOSPITAL, CLEVELAND, OHIO

Rev. Philip Vollmer, Jr., Superintendent

"NURSING ENGAGES THE HEART AS WELL AS THE MIND"

Our hospital took care of 2,724 patients last year for a total of 28,978 patient days, which represents an occupancy of 80% for our 100 beds. Fifteen percent of this work was free work. In addition, the free dispensary had 6,648 visits, or 992 more visits than the previous year's total, which up to that time was our record. Our maternity department cared for 426 mothers to whom 411 babies were born. The school of nursing at present enrolls 65 students.

Figures, like people, must be lived with before we can feelingly understand them. The above paragraph is really warm with life. Almost 29,000 patient days! A day is a long time now and then even for a nurse, schooled in patience; but how much longer the day seems to a patient! Here lies the chance to serve, which still motivates thousands of young women every year to choose nursing as a career.

4 YB

Of these days, 4,350, that cost us $23,055, were given free of charge to the poor. How fruitful, beyond calculation, has been Jesus' picture of the robber victim healed by the wine and the oil and the gold of the Good Samaritan. "The quality of mercy" . . . really "blesses him that gives," as the true nurse will always tell you. And the blessing goes further back than that to the friends of the poor and sick who have given either of their little or their great plenty, helping the trustees to continue their charities. The alchemy of unselfish love is still a mystic thing.

Five thousand and thirty-two days were newborn days, "rosebud" days someone has called them, and the work they represent, though not without toil, is never less than delightful. 411 little strangers, wending their sleepy way "out of the nowhere into the here," stopped with us long enough to help cancel some of the tears and the pain that are inevitable in a hospital. It's a rare sight to see as many as twenty-five of these "beginners" quietly going about the serious business of entering life—and doing it by sleeping. Our third floor, reserved for mothers and babies, is our happiest floor, our garden spot.

Last year 6,648 callers came to the dispensary for colds, bad eyes, serious internal troubles, 301 of whom we had to put to bed for treatment or operation. At current rates these people would have had to pay well over $20,000 for what we gave them. We collected $1,012.74 from them. During 1931 we had more than 10,000 callers, having received 5,173 for the first half of the year.

Then the school—for, of course, like every modern hospital we school nurses and doctors for the health work of the future. Sixty-five student nurses, only half of whom our old Nurses' Home is able to accommodate, the others living one block away in an old-fashioned but comfortable home, once an Episcopal parish house, take care of the sick under the supervision of 12 graduate nurses. Study, interspersed with practical bedside care, assisting in surgery, maternity and dispensary, make the three year course, which is punctuated annually by a three weeks' vacation, go very rapidly. The nurse touches life where it is quick. She studies nursing and at the same time imbibes life. She learns to understand, to think, to be quietly inspirational, to be tolerant, to be cheerful. Nurses and doctors, however, are only a part of those who comfort and heal. The hospital family includes dietitians, laboratory technicians, engineers, housekeepers, accountants, all of whom, with their helpers, number 62 at Fairview. In fact, for every patient in bed we must have 1½ people at work.

Food, the second largest item of expense, the payroll being the largest, cost us $30,362 in 1930. This money bought 31,560 pounds of meat, 36,000 quarts of milk, 14,040 loaves of bread, 5,570 pounds of butter, 36,000 pounds of potatoes, and a myriad of lesser items. Medicine came to $11,618.35. Coal cost $4,298. The payroll was $66,733.94.

As this is written we are caring for 10 tubercular patients in addition to the 80 we customarily have in the main building. A separate building for this work, which requires segregation, was found by moving the dispensary into the Nurses' Home basement and furnishing the dispensary building for these cases. These patients are paid for by the city and this income, since it was made possible without any large increases in fixed overhead, enables us to show a profit. This profit in turn helps to offset the deficit which this year is, of course, higher than usual.

A good hospital is really a small, self-contained world. Birth and death, joy and sorrow, science and art, serving and waiting, with a background of warm humanity, motivated and guided by the spirit of Him who came to minister to human frailties, physical, mental and spiritual—all these form our microcosm.

Financial needs are present. Help for a growing service to the poor who cannot pay is always welcome. Funds may be addressed to (Rev.) Philip Vollmer, Jr., Superintendent, 3305 Franklin Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio. Additional beds for patients, a nurses' home, and a larger endowment fund are the three items for which capital funds are being solicited by Rev. Fred Hoffman, who may also be addressed as above.

We are ready at all times to hospitalize, without cost to the patient, the worthy poor.

FOOD FOR MIND AND HEART

Those who have been readers of the Church paper for years do not need to be convinced of its power for good. In many thousands of homes it has proved itself a real blessing. If we are to maintain a Church in which educational religion and religious education are not simply theories, but actual facts, we must have a reading people—families who are intelligently informed with regard to the activities and the needs of Christ's Kingdom. The Reformed Church Messenger ($2.50), our oldest Church paper, is edited by Rev. Dr. Paul S. Leinbach, with the Rev. A. S. Bromer, D.D., as Associate Editor. The Christian World ($2.25) is edited by the Rev. Dr. H. S. Gekeler. The Kirchenzeitung ($2.50), our German paper, is edited by the Rev. Dr. Carl F. Heyl. The Outlook of Missions is published monthly, price $1.00, and the International Journal of Religious Education, monthly, costs $2.00. Remember that a truly Reformed Church must be an informed Church. Too many homes are now without Christian literature. One of the greatest services you can render to Protestantism is to inspire a love of good reading in the hearts and minds of the people. And the only genuine statesmanship is to begin with the children in the home.

LIFE ANNUITY BONDS

If you are living on your income and will in all likelihood never have to spend the principal, why not make a perfectly safe investment at a fair rate of interest by taking a Life Annuity Bond? You will receive the interest as long as you live and the Board will have the use of the money at once.

Write to the Secretary of the Board you are interested in. He will explain the plan to you.

PHILADELPHIA SCHOOL FOR CHRISTIAN WORKERS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN AND REFORMED CHURCHES

PHILADELPHIA SCHOOL FOR CHRISTIAN WORKERS

The Philadelphia School for Christian Workers, at 1122-24-26 Spruce Street, Philadelphia, Pa., has, since its foundation in 1907, been rendering unselfish service to the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, with which it is affiliated.

The School is a college of Christian Religious Education, requiring graduation from the high school for admission to the first-year class. The curriculum provides for the training of directors of religious education, deaconesses, and pastors' assistants. Diplomas of graduation are awarded those that complete the three-year and two-year courses. The degree of Bachelor of Religious Education is conferred upon such graduates of the three-year course as entered the School after completing two years of college training.

The Bible is the center of the curriculum. The courses in religious education provide training in the history, organization, administration, and functions of the Church school, and the methods needed for effective teaching of the Christian religion. A cultural background is provided. The curriculum is steadily being enriched. Advanced courses for college graduates, as well as correspondence courses for those that for any reason cannot enroll as resident students, have been added.

Two hundred graduates and undergraduates are at work in twenty-seven states and foreign countries. The demands for trained lay workers far exceed the present supply. With its graduates placed, and its present student body also rendering such service as is possible for young people in process of training, the School is living up to the limit of its opportunity. It seeks, however, to enlarge its usefulness. To that end it appeals to the Church both for students and for funds.

The School pledges the Church the highest standards of excellence in scholarship and character. If the Church will provide the School with the money needed for carrying on its enlarging program, the School will provide the Church with a college of Christian Religious Education second to none. And if the Church will send its young people to the School for training in the principles, ideals, methods, and practice of Christian Religious Education, the School will send them back to the Church prepared to add their youthful zeal and developed Christian powers to the other forces of consecrated Christian leadership already at work.

Will you not carry the School in your heart, in your prayers, and in your budget? Write today for a copy of the catalog.

ITEMS GLEANED FROM LAST YEAR'S RECORD

At the rate of $4 per day, the Friends' Service Committee on Unemployment donated $864 worth of labor to St. Andrew's, Philadelphia, Pa., Rev. Albert G. Peters, S.T.D., during the Spring season. The church furnished the material. The parsonage was put in first-class condition and many necessary repairs made to the church property. The unemployed did excellent work.

With the completion of the new Parish House, Emmanuel (Baust's) Church, Rev. M. S. Reifsnnyder, Westminster, Md., entered into a program of many added activities. The entire program of Religious Education was changed and brought up-to-date. Pastor and people are very enthusiastic over the future progress of this church.

First, Greensboro, N. C., Rev. W. C. Lyerly, erected a S. S. Building during the summer months, the new part being made an addition to the present building. This is to care for a growing school that enrolls more than 600. The pastor was elected President of the Centennial Session of Classis, being a great-grandson of Elder Adam Roseman, Esq., a member of the first Classis.

Emmanuel, Allentown, Pa., Rev. Willis D. Mathias, organized Men's League, Boy Scouts and Intermediate C. E. groups. W. M. S. attained Standard of Excellency for 2nd consecutive year. Departmentalized V.C.S. for 3 weeks; delegates to Summer Camps and Conferences. Three months of intensive missionary education in Primary, Junior and Intermediate Departments of Church School. Better average attendance and increased giving.

St. John's, Slatington, Pa., Rev. R. Maxwell Paine, built new chancel and reredos; organized Boys' choir of 25 and Girls' choir of 35 voices; Chancel choir of 40 voices, noted throughout the Lehigh Valley for its musical renditions, vested and catechumens vested by Aid Society; Closely Graded system of Religious Education adopted in Church School.

The German congregation at Danzig, of the Ashley, N. D., Charge, Rev. F. W. Herzog, built a new church.

Heidelberg, York, Pa., Rev. W. Sherman Kerschner, D.D., installed new organ, choir-loft altered and choir vested, costing $20,000. Mission Band organized with an enrollment of 85.

RICHARD WATSON BOMBERGER, A.M.
NEW DEAN,
FRANKLIN & MARSHALL COLLEGE,
LANCASTER, PA.

The pipe organ and ceiling above it, in Emanuel, Philadelphia, Pa., Rev. Benj. S. Stern, D.D., were damaged in a very peculiar way. The large weight in the church steeple which caused the clock to strike, dropped, breaking through the ceiling and landed in the swell-box of the organ. It will cost nearly $3,000 to repair and rebuild.

St. John's, Archbold, Ohio, Rev. T. J. Klaudt, enjoyed a fruitful year; made a number of improvements, purchased a new carpet for the entire church floor, including the S. S. room; also purchased new hymnals for the S. S.—total cost, approximately, $800.

During the first six months, 54 members were received in First Church, Lexington, N. C., Rev.

J. C. Leonard, D.D. D.V.B.S. enrolled 140 pupils and 12 teachers. This church took deep interest in the Centennial Anniversary of North Carolina Classis, May 21-24.

Grace, Canton, Ohio, Rev. E. G. Klotz, is going forward.

First, Reading, Pa., Rev. D. J. Wetzel, celebrated 75th anniversary of the Ladies' Mite Society. They contributed more than $60,000 to the church. Also celebrated the 100th anniversary of the building of the church. Congregation established in 1752. Present edifice built in 1831.

Emanuel, Lincolnton, N. C., Rev. Hoy L. Fesperman, made splendid progress in all organizations. Paid apportionment in full—first in the Classis. Carrying Building and Loan to pay for new S. S. rooms at cost of $3,500. Several new members added. Future looks bright. Faithful congregation.

Trinity, Telford, Pa., Rev. G. W. Spotts, improved its basement and S. S. room and enjoyed a fine year in benevolence. Immanuel's (Leidy's) erected a Ladies' Aid Building for community work.

Christ, Brooklyn, N. Y., Rev. H. W. J. Schulz, paid apportionment in full for the first time and added 16 new members.

Swamp-Amity Charge, Rev. Howard A. Alt-house. Falkner Swamp, founded in 1720 by Rev. John Philip Boehm, installed a large new bulletin-board, giving a brief history to people who pass by on the Boyertown-Limerick pike. It was built by Mr. John Geist, a member of the church.

In St. Joseph, Mo., Rev. J. B. Bloom, in spite of depression and business reverses, new front doors, frescoing of S. S. rooms, repairing art-glass windows, were added improvements. A friend of the pastor and congregation donated 100 new Reformed Church Hymnals in memory of Mrs. Ida Bloom. The church entertained Missouri and Kansas Classes when the merger was effected.

A Union D.V.B.S. was conducted, for 2 weeks, in First Church, Olney, Illinois, Rev. Norman J. Dechant. The total enrollment was 160, with an average attendance of 135.

St. Paul's and Zion's, of the Genea Bluffs Charge, Rev. Louis A. Moser, erected a fine modern parsonage at an approximate outlay of $3500, standing where the old one stood during the past 42 years. This is an open country charge near Marengo, Iowa. A courageous undertaking for pastor and people in a time of depression.

In all the churches of the New Ringgold Charge, Lebanon Classis, Rev. Theodore J. Schneider, the principal effort was the introduction of reverent worship. The Lord's Day Service is chorally rendered and special stress is laid on the Holy Eucharist. Zion's Church, Tuscarara, has been beautifully restored. Zion's Church, Lewistown, is building a parish hall.

St. Paul Mission, Allentown, Pa., Rev. E. Elmer Sensenig, due to the depression and unsettled industrial conditions, heartily co-operated with the Community Charitable and Welfare Agencies and ministered unto 136 needy cases giving assistance and council in a large variety of ways to a large number of unfortunates; and thereby did real Home Mission work.

Jefferson Charge, Gettysburg Classis, Rev. Paul D. Yoder. Out of a possible 325 catechumens confirmed by Rev. Yoder during a pastorate of 20 years, 198 were present at the Reunion held at St. Jacob's (Stone Church), Brodbeck's, Pa., November 2, 1930. More than 2,000 people attended.

At the end of Rev. C. M. Grahl's first year as pastor of Zion, Freeport, Ill., church attendance increased from 7,339 to 9,786. Average for every Sunday is 86% of membership. Co-operation is excellent. New organizations, such as Music Club, are doing commendable work. Spirit of the Master is thus manifest.

Schaefferstown, Pa., Rev. A. J. Bachman, celebrated the 53rd anniversary of his pastorate and the 50th of the Missionary Society.

Prospect Charge, Central Ohio Classis, Rev. E. A. Gradwohl. In Emanuel, 5 catechumens confirmed on Easter. Zion conducted a community Leadership Training School, 44 received credit; also a V.B.S. with 40 children and 5 teachers enrolled, all teachers were volunteer workers. New Hymnals were given by the W.M.S.

New Basil Charge, Rev. W. J. Becker, Dillon, Kansas. Another successful year's work was done in the Lord's vineyard in this North Central Kansas congregation. Apportionment was paid in full in spite of financial depression and bank failure. 35 new members were added to Church roll. Pastor has served congregation 2 years.

Stewardship year was fittingly observed in the Concord, N. C., Charge, Rev. H. C. Kellermeyer. March was set aside as "Stewardship Study Month." In both congregations all members of the Church School above junior age used "The Way to the Best" as a guide for 5 weeks' study. Stewardship books were circulated and widely read. 60 signed the Fellowship of Stewardship Covenant.

The manse of the First Church, Shelby, Ohio, Rev. David J. W. Noll, was repaired outside and inside. Hardwood floors placed inside, papered and painted; exterior painted. Pastor and people rejoice in the Master's work.

Minor repairs were made in the 3 churches of the Glenford Charge, Rev. Frank R. Jenkins, Somerset, Ohio. St. Paul's confirmed 12; 8 in Zion Church.

Trinity, Wilkesburg, Pa., Rev. E. Roy Corman, is studying educational plans to meet her needs in the near future. Standards and goals have been established and are being realized. The pipe organ was recently electrified. 2 hour programs are conducted in the Children's Division of the School during the Winter. The community W.D. School is a marked success.

Zion, New Bedford, Ohio, Rev. A. J. Levensgood, completed interior renovations and decoration in oil-color. Electricity installed. An average evening service of 400 is sustained through summer months. This is nearly twice the membership.

The D. V. B. S. of Canal Winchester, Ohio, Rev. Paul T. Slinghoff, conducted for 4 weeks, had an enrollment of 146. All teachers trained in own School. Apportionment paid in full each year.

During the Pastor's leave of absence to pursue graduate studies at the University of Edinburgh, the pulpit of Trinity Church, Philadelphia, Pa., Rev. Purd E. Deitz, is being supplied by Rev. Paul S. Leinbach, D.D., Litt.D., and the pastoral work is being cared for by Rev. Arthur Leeming. Financial reports for last fiscal year show continued gains.

First Church, Cleveland, Ohio, Rev. John Sommerlatte, was gratified to witness the ordination of one of its most promising sons, Licentiate John Köchner, graduate of the Mission House College and Seminary, who became pastor of St. John's, Buffalo, N. Y.

Menno Charge, South Dakota, Rev. John Bodenman, shares the difficulties that 4 congregations, totalling 510 members, experience being served by one pastor. Elders are conducting services and Sunday Schools in addition to the pastor. Both are well attended. To divide the Charge is not yet possible on account of different reasons.

Christ Church, Bath, Pa., Rev. W. U. Helffrich, D.D., organized a chapter of the Churchmen's League which began to function immediately and promises to share the work of the congregation with the women's organizations.

Christ's, Hagerstown, Md., during the first 8 months of the pastorate of Rev. H. A. Fespermen, which began on November 1, 1930, added 88 members.

First Church, High Point, N. C., Rev. W. R. Shaffer, went to self-support. This was a difficult thing to do during the present financial depression but with God's help it can be done. It is a venture in faith.

St. John's, Williamsport, Pa., Rev. W. C. Ritzenhouse, was the recipient of a number of fine gifts:—For the Church School, Mrs. Sadie Mercer Leinbach had one section of the room enclosed with folding doors for a Church parlor; also presented rug and box-couch; Mrs. C. J. Bicket presented a pair of handsome brass altar vases; the A. E. Balliet Bible Class presented a new set of beautiful altar cloths and pulpit and lectern antependia.

Dryland Charge, East Pennsylvania Classis, Rev. C. A. Butz, Ph.D., reports an organization of W.M.S. at Dryland; G. M. Guild at Zion. C. E. Society at Zion, for 2nd year, won city banner. Zion S. S. Dart Base Ball team won banner and cup for championship Bethlehem Dart Base Ball League for 1930-31 season.

Lowell Charge, Canton, Ohio, Rev. O. P. Foust, painted all exterior woodwork of their building; organized both Girl and Boy Scout Troops; conducted very successful D.V.B.S.; increased both S.S. and church membership rolls.

St. John's of the Emlenton, Pa., Charge, Rev. J. J. Gilbert, renovated interior of church, installed new electric lights and paid apportionment in full. Salem Church confirmed a class of 13 at the Easter season and organized a class of Young People (The Crusaders) with 25 members.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Stephen's Church, Lebanon, Pa., Rev. Pierce E. Swope, had the exterior of the parsonage painted, most of the rooms papered and a new furnace installed.

Since 1926 there has been a gain of 43% in the S. S. attendance of St. John's Church, Mifflinburg, Pa., Rev. Russell D. Custer. A Nursery Department was added to the Church School as well as up-to-date equipment in Children's Division. The Junior Church is continuing to function efficiently on Sunday mornings. Four C. E. groups meet simultaneously on Sunday evenings.

A project of community pride as well as of church beautification was accomplished with gratifying success in First Church, Berwick, Pa., Rev. R. S. Vandevere. The north side of the church was changed into a rolling green terrace and the banks south of the parsonage were changed into gradual slopes supported by a stout concrete retaining wall. This project was undertaken to serve two purposes:—to beautify the church grounds and to give temporary employment to the unemployed.

On September 21, 1930, Shalter's Church near Reading, Pa., of the Spiess Charge, Rev. M. L. Herbein, dedicated a new two-manual pipe-organ. The all-day service was attended by 1,000 persons.

On October 26, 1930, St. John's Church, Shamokin, Pa., unveiled a portrait of the pastor, Rev. C. B. Schneder, D.D. The speakers were Rev. A. R. Bartholomew, D.D., LL.D., Rev. Theodore F. Herman, D.D., Rev. W. C. Hall and Deacon H. Wilson Lark. On June 21, 1931, the Vera S. Simmons Choir Annex, the gift of Elder and Mrs. E. G. Seiler in honor of their only grandchild, was dedicated. On the same occasion a beautiful loving-cup was presented to Elder Seiler on his 84th birthday.

Mt. Zion, Gettysburg Classis, Rev. G. W. Welsh, D.D., installed an acousticon and four phones; tiled vestibules with a legacy of a former member; increased salary of pastor to $1500. Dr. Welsh finished the 24th year of his pastorate.

Manitoba Classis has been invited to meet in Winnipeg this year at which time Salem Church, Rev. C. D. Maurer, will observe its 25th Anniversary.

Rev. Theodore Mueller completed the first year of his labor in Salem, Pearl City, Ill., under favorable auspices. Attendance fairly good and increasing; 12 gained, 9 by Confirmation, 1 by Adult Baptism, 2 by Re-profession.

First Church, Warren, Ohio, Rev. J. P. Alden, holds a combined summer morning service from 9:30 till 11: 1st period, worship led by S. S. Superintendent and Pastor; 2d period, sermon; 3d period, S. S. lessons. A committee of the Consistory conducted services during the pastor's vacation, taking turns reading a sermon.

Worship in St. John's Church, Coopersburg, Pa., Rev. Wm. H. Cogley, has been beautified by the addition of a Vested Choir and gown for the Minister. The G.M.G. and Sunday School presented two sets of brocaded Pulpit and Altar hangings for this church. The Union Aide of Blue Church gave a gift of complete Pulpit and Altar covers to that church. Work progressing nicely with increase in membership in all churches. All organizations showing progress.

Trinity, Palmyra, Pa., Rev. Elmer G. Leinbach, renovated their parsonage both exterior and interior at considerable expense. This is now a fine, modern building. Apportionment paid in full.

Catechetical and Leadership Training Classes organized in all three congregations of the Bear Creek, North Carolina, Charge, Rev. Wm. S. Gerhardt. At Easter time, 22 confirmations. D.V. B.S. for first time held at Mt. Pleasant Community school, Reformed Pastor as Director, enrollment 179. Great interest.

Grace Church, Jeannette, Pa., Rev. Ralph S. Weiler, observed the 40th Anniversary of the building of the first church during the week of November 2. Pittsburgh Synod met in this Church May 19-21.

Friedensburg Charge, Rev. Eneas B. Messner, had the largest Spring communions in the present pastorate. New electric light plant installed at Summer Hill and Brown's. Joint choirs, under the leadership of Mrs. E. B. Messner, rendered the Easter Cantata, "Christ Victorious" to crowded houses in the four Churches. St. John's Sunday School, Friedensburg, had the highest percentage for attendance in Schuylkill Co.

Palatinate Church, Philadelphia, Pa., Rev. H. G. Maeder, Ph.D., as well as the entire Denomination, has the distinction of having one of its outstanding sons, namely, Gene Stone, serve as President of the Philadelphia Union of Christian Endeavor for 1931-32.

Salem, Harrisburg, Pa., Rev. J. N. LeVan, D.D., completed an extensive renovation program with the dedication of the Dr. Kremer Memorial Hall, for social and recreational purposes, and the placing of bronze memorial tablet in the church auditorium to the beloved Dr. Ellis Newlin Kremer, pastor for 40 years. Salem was happy to entertain Eastern Synod, May 11-14. Seventy accessions to membership.

First Church, Fremont, Ohio, Rev. Lewis G. Fritz, painted the parsonage and decorated a number of class rooms. One or two students are sent yearly to the Dayton School of Religious Education.

The new and remodeled Church School building of Christ Church, Middletown, Md., Rev. John S. Adam, housing a departmentalized school now in the 4th year of operation, is working very well. The 41 alumnae of Leadership Training held a banquet on March 27 at which time Dr. Nevin C. Harner spoke. A very successful affair.

During the Easter season an illuminated cross of large proportion was placed on the front lawn of First Church, Alliance, Ohio, Rev. Ewald Sommerlatte, as a gift of the young men of the Church and Bible Class. At the "half-way point," June 30, apportionment fully paid. Fraternal relations with sister churches are of the finest temper of brotherhood.

Calvary, Turtle Creek, Pa., Rev. John A. Yount, organized a chapter of the Reformed Churchman's League with Dr. W. H. Waugaman as President, and much good has already been accomplished through this new venture.

Rev. I. G. Snyder, was installed pastor of the Conyngham, Pa., Charge, December 14, 1930. In June, the 2nd Anniversary of the dedication of the new Church was observed with a week of services and a cash offering of $2,850, to be applied on the church debt.

A new furnace was installed in the Hamilton, Ohio, Church plant, Rev. Walter B. Leis, 35 young people were added to the Church membership. A three-week Vacation Church School was conducted during the Summer with 55 pupils enrolled.

Rev. H. H. Rupp, St. John's Church, Lewisburg, Pa., observed the 10th Anniversary as pastor of that church in October, 1930. During this pastorate, 356 persons were added to the church-roll, making a net gain of 55½%.

First Church, Nashville, Tenn., Rev. H. F. J. Uberroth, vested its Chancel Choir; conducted monthly Church Night Programmes; paid its apportionment in full and received 31 new members. All bills paid promptly in spite of the depression. Visiting Reformed people from many states. This Church is gaining a firm footing in this "The Athens of the South."

Faith Church, Lancaster, Pa., Rev. D. G. Glass, celebrated the 35th Anniversary of their Sunday School when an address was delivered by Dr. Theodore F. Herman. A D.V.B.S.—the 11th session—was conducted with an enrollment of 118.

First Church, Palmerton, Pa., Rev. Sidney S. Smith, increased its program of work. The Easter additions numbered 56. Plans are being prepared to beautify the interior of the Church.

During the incumbency of Rev. S. U. Snyder as supply-pastor of the Good Hope Church, East Liberty, Ohio, the first unit of a new church was erected at a cost of $4,500. The building accommodates 250 and was dedicated free of debt. This is a revived rural congregation.

Delaware, Ohio, Rev. Ervin E. Young, had a net gain in membership of 15; the property was put in good repair. By the will of Josephine Miller, the congregation receives $24,689.67.

The work of repairing and painting the Dushore, Pa., church, Rev. C. B. Meyers, has just been finished at an approximate cost of $400.

At the time of reporting, not one payment on the Building Debt (nor the interest) had been "missed," even during the present financial depression, in Grace Church, Akron, Ohio, Rev. O. W. Haulman.

Rev. J. M. Hanko serves 2 Hungarian Churches, one in Milwaukee and the other in Racine, Wis.

St. Paul's, Milltown, N. J., Rev. Sam. R. Brenner, reported the average attendance from Sept.

to June, 248 in the morning and 180 in the evening. Unified Services in morning, after a year's trial, proved most acceptable. A Junior C. E. and Mission Band were organized in April. Largest D.V.B.S., with 143 enrolled. Twenty new members received up to Pentecost—a total of 55 in this pastorate of 25 months.

Rev. Perry H. Baumann, in Memorial Church, Toledo, Ohio, taught The Old Testament, The Life of Christ and the Psalms at the Spring Valley Girls' Camp conducted by the Toledo Sunday School Association for high school and college girls. It is accredited by the International Council of Religious Education. Memorial's average Church attendance for the first 6 months was 60%. The Sunday School record of 20 years back will be bettered by an average attendance of 15 or 20 above that of 1911.

Rev. Henry Schmidt is serving his 37th year as pastor of Third Church, Cleveland, Ohio. This has been his only pastorate.

In St. John's, Chambersburg, Pa., Rev. W. R. Gobrecht, a very successful D.V.B.S. was held in June. One hundred fifteen children were enrolled and the attendance each day was almost 100%. Graded lessons in Bible Missions, Music and Dramatics, were given by 12 teachers and helpers.

Trinity, Wadsworth, Ohio, Rev. G. H. Gebhardt, supports a native worker in China in addition to the apportionment. Forty-three accessions. All women's organizations were united in "The Women's Council" with 4 departments:—World Service, Local Service, Literary and Music. This Church co-operates with four others in Union Sunday evening services throughout the year.

The work in the Manor Charge, Maryland Classis, Rev. Harvey S. Shue, is advancing very nicely. The attendance is increasing gradually. The people are doing fine work.

A class of young women in the S. S. of Trinity Church, Freemansburg, Pa., Rev. S. L. Messenger, D.D., organized themselves under the name of the "Philathea" Class, having for its aim the study of the Bible and the care of the girls. Athletics is a side interest and its baseball team won many games during the 1931 season.

Church Worship attendance in First Church, Indianapolis, Ind., Rev. C. J. G. Russom, excellent. Apportionment paid for 6th successive year. Seventeen boys and girls were confirmed on Pentecost. Large percentage of morning worshippers, young people. Junior Church Services every Sunday morning. Membership grown from 260 to 465 in 6 years. Indebtedness on splendid new modern Educational Building and remodeled church speedily reduced. First V. C. S. with 70 boys and girls from 6 to 12 years enrolled.

A V. C. S. was conducted by Trinity, Norristown, Pa., Rev. Edwin N. Faye, Jr. Demonstration Worship Services and Biblical Dramas featured in closing Commencement Exercises.

Zion, Cumberland, Md., Rev. A. M. Wright, is growing in membership and influence in the community. Many new members added and the Church debt rapidly being paid off. Fall meeting of Classis was held here.

The historical Boehm's Church, founded 1740, Blue Bell, Pa., Rev. Edward R. Cook, S.T.M., is holding its own in this day of rush and excitement. The membership is increasing steadily and financially speaking the church is better than it has ever been. The Sunday School was re-organized and placed upon an up-to-date basis. The congregation is proud of its historic church in its modern dress.

The young people of the Reformed Church at Monticello, Iowa, Rev. Armin H. Tendick, had as their goal for 1931 the securing of new Reformed Church Hymnals for the Church and adding a substantial sum to the Building Fund begun during the present pastorate. The Sunday School devotes the offerings of the first Sunday of every month toward the Building Fund. The Ladies' Aid and W.M.S. help loyally.

The Federated Reformed and Presbyterian Church, McConnellsburg, Pa., Rev. William J. Lowe, Reformed Church notes:—An enlarged and modern S. S. building erected several years ago has helped the school reach its highest average attendance during past year. The Christian Herald awarded the church special recognition for beautiful grounds, planting and care. An endowment fund for permanent care of church cemetery is rapidly growing.

In November, 1930, First Church, Galion, Ohio, Rev. R. R. Elliker, was re-dedicated after an extensive program of repairs and improvements, amounting to $12,000. In the first year of the present pastorate, 27 new members were received; 84 sermons preached and 22 funerals conducted.

The 25th anniversary of Rev. Jacob Schmitt's pastorate of St. Paul's, New York City and the 35th of his ordination, were beautifully celebrated. During these 25 years, 350 adults were received by re-profession, 881 confirmed, 1209 children and adults baptized, 635 couples married, 942 people buried. Property greatly improved. Indebtedness nearly wiped out.

Grace, York, Pa., Rev. Irwin A. Raubenhold, enjoyed one of its best years financially. A number of temporary repairs were made to the church property. For the 43rd year in succession the apportionment was paid in full.

Grace Church, Mount Carmel, Pa., has taken on new life. Rev. Morgan A. Peters received a call and started his work among these people on November 1, 1930. The membership rallied. The School increased 55%. Extensive improvements made to the properties.

Bluffton, Ohio, Charge, Emmanuel's and St. John's, Rev. Arthur K. Beisheim. Unified services at St. John's continue in high favor with a Mission Band meeting during the sermon every 2 weeks. Emmanuel's Junior C. E. meets every 2 weeks during the sermon period. Both congregations have morning services at the same hour each Sunday. There is a joint Men's Chorus and an annual joint picnic at the church grove.

Salem Church, Catasauqua, Pa., Rev. W. A. Kratz, is making an effort to improve the Church School by improving the leaders. Six young people attended Camp Mensch Mill. During the winter, 13 young teachers completed Course 2, and 17 Course 4 of the Standard Curriculum.

The baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Bloomsburg, Pa., High School was preached by Rev. John C. Brumbach, of the Reformed Church. The baccalaureate service in Bloomsburg is a union service of all the Churches and is held in the Methodist Church.

By the will of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Von Blon, Emanuel congregation, Upper Sandusky, Ohio, Rev. Geo. W. Good, supply-pastor, the Board of Home Missions, Board of Ministerial Relief and Central Theological Seminary, each received $402.53. This congregation has paid its quota to Founder's Hall, Heidelberg College, in full.

The W.M.S., G.M.G. and Mission Band of the Cross Charge, Rev. J. L. Conrad, Berne, Ind., were again "front line" societies, each attaining the Standard of Excellence. The W.M.S. Classical of Fort Wayne Classis met here in February. An Intermediate Choir was organized and rendered a splendid service, as did also the Senior Choir, an older organization. Men's Congress met in this church on September 27.

Trinity Church, Skippack, Pa., Rev. Carl G. Petri, installed an oil burner heater and vapor heating system; laid a new floor and carpet in the auditorium and built a rolled and oiled crushed stone road to the church, besides other improvements. Charles M. Pool, for 34 years an active elder, died December 27, 1930.

Zion's at Marklesburg, Pa., of the Woodcock Valley Charge, Rev. J. W. Yeisley, installed a basement under the church.

An addition was built to the parsonage of the Numidia Charge, Rev. A. Levan Zechman, Catawissa, Pa. An inner circle of 15 members was formed in the W.M.S. A wholesome growth in the Charge continues to be manifested. Seventy-six members of St. Paul's Sunday School had perfect attendance for the year 1930.

St. John's (Deckard's) Church of the Cochran-ton, Pa., Charge, Rev. R. Ira Gass, was papered and repaired on the inside. The auditorium now presents a beautiful appearance.

The W.M.S. and G.M.G. of Trinity Church, Mulberry, Ind., Rev. C. J. Snyder, both gained standard of distinction, Mission Band missing it by 2 points. Aid Society had church parlor painted. Encouraging gain in average Sunday School attendance. St. Luke's and Trinity each lost an active elder during the year. Two delegates from each congregation at Bethany Park Missionary Conference. New piano purchased for Children's Division at St. Luke's.

Christ, Lykens, Pa., Rev. W. R. Hartzell, conducted a class in Leadership Training for 10 members. Organized the Junior Heidelberg League for children from 10 to 15 years. The Young People's Christian Association includes ages 15 and over.

In St. John's Church, St. Johns, Pa., Rev. Theo. C. Hesson, the fine result of the Loyalty Campaign during the month of March could be seen in every department of church work. Never were the C. E. meetings so good. Most elaborate and beautiful of the year was the Children's Day service.

Since May, 1930, Zion congregation, Louisville, Ky., Rev. Charles H. Schmitt, participated in Union Sunday Night Services with 5 other downtown congregations. The following Communion are represented in the union:—Presbyterian, Lutheran, Christian, Evangelical and Reformed.

The work in the Wills Creek Charge, Somerset Classis, Rev. J. E. Gindlesperger, is progressing very nicely along all lines of Christian endeavor, at the close of the 3rd year of the present pastorate. New members were constantly added and new spirit and life seen in all branches of the work. The pastor reports that it has been a pleasure to serve these fine people. The greatest hindrance has been the financial end of the work but better days are hoped for in the near future.

The Hilltown-Dublin Charge, Rev. J. E. Wildasin, erected a new parsonage adjoining the church grounds in Dublin. The pastor and family occupied it on May 7. Rev. Wildasin enters upon his 8th year of labor in this field.

The church auditorium at Ragersville, Ohio, Rev. John G. Sutz, was improved with a new floor, new seating, new lighting and a new furnace. The S. S. and C. E. Society are active.

Grace Church, Washington, D. C., Rev. Henry H. Ranck, D.D., installed a new Möller pipe organ and beautified the sanctuary.

God called from St. Paul's Church, Alma, Wis., Mrs. Minnie Tritsch, secretary of the Ladies' Aid, organist, and a faithful and enthusiastic worker in all spheres of church work, and Mother Ullrich, 90-year-old charter-member. The pastor, Rev. A. C. Peterhaensel, preached several times in Germany last summer.

A 30% increase in membership was reported by the Sunday School of Grace Church, Duquesne, Pa., Rev. Alfred J. Herman. Rev. Herman was elected president of the Sunday School Association of the city. The Girls' Missionary Guild was represented by 2 full-time delegates at Pittsburgh Synod's Missionary Conference at Shady-side Academy.

Hope Congregation, Harbine, Nebr., Rev. P. S. Kohler, extensively improved their church property by planting shrubs and trees, remodeling various buildings and erecting a fine modern parsonage; organized a choir and a Kindergarten class in the S. S. Services are well attended.

The use of Standard "B" is improving the East Canton, Ohio, Rev. W. F. Kissel, educational work. Sixteen attended the Canton Leadership Training School. Twenty-six young people attended the department camp at Heidelberg Beach on Lake Erie.

Calvary, Lima, Ohio, Rev. Harlan J. Miller, had a good year in spite of adverse business conditions which strike heavily upon the congregation under its circumstances. Calvary's largest and most successful V.B.S. was held in July.

The Adult Bible Class of St. Paul's, Summit Hill, Pa., Rev. E. W. Kohler, reached its highest peak in attendance of its 24 years as an organized Bible Class during the past year with a consistent increase of 20%.

St. Paul's, Fort Washington, Pa., Rev. R. L. Holland, renovated the parsonage at a cost of $6,000. A Men's Class in Comparative Religions was formed. Series of lectures on "American Policy in the Caribbean" brought the Missionary message of the year before the whole congregation. Two hundred and twentieth Anniversary of the congregation was celebrated. Apportionment paid in full and $1,500 on the Church Debt.

Jerusalem Congregation of the Pleasant Valley Charge, Rev. F. W. Smith, celebrated the 45th anniversary of the present pastorate on October 19, 1930. Rev. Wm. F. Curtis, Litt.D., LL.D., preached the sermon. The Spiritual sons, Revs. J. J. Schaeffer and John A. Borger and 6 visiting clergymen brought greetings.

Daily V.B.S. and Catechism Classes are held every Summer during July and August by the First Magyar Church, Dayton, Ohio, Rev. John Azary. Deaconess position is temporarily vacant. The work of the church and Sunday School is fully organized with mid-week prayer service on Thursday evening and Saturday morning religious school.

Third Church, Youngstown, Ohio, Rev. N. B. Mathes, D.D., reports the organization of an active Intermediate C. E. Society with 30 members and interesting meetings held until early summer. This congregation, located in the outskirts of the city, has a splendid group of young people of the teen age, and an active troop of Boy Scouts.

Extensive renovations were made at Glade Church, Walkersville, Md., Rev. Frank A. Rosenberger, during the summer. The auditorium was redecorated, new fixtures for lighting were installed, a memorial painting and new offering plates dedicated. The exterior of the church and parsonage, also painted.

The Sunday School of St. Stephen's, Perkaspie, Pa., Rev. Howard Obold, refurnished the dining-room of Frick Cottage, at Bethany Orphans' Home as an anniversary gift. The 3 C. E. Societies and Choir—the congregation's young people—maintained special evening services during the month of August.

Largest communion attendance in the history of Christ Church, Orrville, Ohio, Rev. A. L. Scherry, during the past year. A successful D. V.B.S. conducted for 3 weeks during July. Entire basement of the church was renovated. New Hymnals purchased for the Church School. A splendid spirit of harmony prevails.

St. John's, Bethlehem, Pa., Rev. Walter D. Mehrling. Steady improvement in Sunday School attendance and largest picnic. Last report to

TOHICKON CLASSIS COTTAGE, CAMP MENSCH MILL,
Erected During the Summer of 1931

Classis showed 96% communion and apportionment paid in full.

Middlebrook Charge, Virginia Classis, Rev. Horace R. Lequear. St. John's Sunday School added second piano and Church School Hymnals, and conducted a successful V.S. in August with 60 attending. The Charge mourns the deaths of Elder James J. Rosen, St. John's Church, and Elder William B. Miller, St. Paul's Church. Men's League, W.M.S., and Ladies' Aid loyally active.

Moore Township Charge, Rev. H. D. Clauss, Bowmanstown, Pa., 2 installations which recently took place were the direct fruits of the late Dr. J. E. Smith:—Rev. Charles L. Hahn of Wapwallopen, Pa., and Rev. George R. Johnson of Howard, Pa. Flower seeds gathered from the grave of the Rev. E. W. Lentz, Jr., Mount of Olives, have developed into beautiful plants here.

St. Luke's and St. John's Church, Baltimore, Md., Rev. Melville H. Way, invested $3,000 in Home Mission Board bonds. The money is part of the fund established with the proceeds from the sale of the old St. John's property when St. Luke's and St. John's united.

The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on the pastor of the West Manheim Charge, Gettysburg Classis, Rev. E. M. Sando, by Ursinus College at its commencement on June 8. Bethel

Church of this Charge was extensively remodeled and improved during this summer at a cost of over $5,600 and was rededicated on August 16.

By the time this item is printed the Massillon, Ohio, congregation, Rev. E. E. Engle, will be using its new modern building to which it has looked forward for many years.

Christ Church, Rev. C. E. Correll, Ph.D., representing 9 nationalities, the only Protestant Church in McAdoo, Pa., an anthracite mining town of over 5,000 population, has paid its apportionment in full each year for 10 years. Poor housing is this community's great deterrent. An old, dilapidated, little, one-roomed church is a poor representative of Protestantism among the stately Non-Protestant churches of the town.

The Unified Church and Church School System of Salem, Shamokin, Pa., Rev. Alvin F. Dietz, has been in vogue for 3 years. The system has created much interest. It has grown from an attendance of 275 to nearly 500.

Trinity, Canton, Ohio, Rev. H. Nevin Kerst, D.D., reports one of the congregation's best years. Paid $21,000 for current expenses; $17,000 for benevolences and $1,650 for support of missionary in China; received 100 members; total Sunday School enrollment, 1,680. Average attendance, 900.

The Mothers' and Daughters' Banquet held in the Waughtown, N. C., Charge, Rev. A. C. Peeler, B.D., was of unusual character. Large in attendance and fine program.

For 20 consecutive years, First Church, Schuylkill Haven, Pa., Rev. John L. Herbster, has paid the apportionment in full. The most successful plan has been by monthly payment through the weekly duplex envelopes.

Messiah, Phila., Pa., Rev. James W. Bright, added 26 new members; apportionment paid in full; a new heating system installed. The Möller organ presented by Elder Geiser last year was enlarged, by Mr. Geiser, with the addition of Vox Humana and Chimes. The Church and all organizations are in a healthy condition.

Rev. E. F. Menger has been pastor of Saron Church, R. F. D. 2, Dundas, Ill., since January 1. The Sunday School is in a flourishing condition. The Children's Department is held in the basement. The congregation entered wholeheartedly in Township project of Union D.V.B.S. with 4 other Churches.

Hummelstown, Pa., Charge, Rev. Alton W. Barley, received 38 additional members. The Hummelstown congregation recently renovated the auditorium at a cost of $2,000.

Rev. William H. Snyder assumed the pastorate of St. John's Church, St. Clair, Pa., on January 1, 1930. The indebtedness on the church amounted to $19,000. It is now $15,000. A Junior choir of 28 voices organized. New gowns purchased for Senior choir. Ladies' Aid pay 6% interest on note of $12,000, adding thereto the payment of other important items.

Rev. Ernest Gander reports that pastor and people of Zion Church, Dawson, Nebr., are happy in their work and plans. The times indeed are testing but present a real challenge. A newly organized C. E. gives promise of serving in a new avenue that will be a blessing. Sunday School and church worship are being attended encouragingly.

St. Paul's Church, Greenville, Ohio, Rev. Edgar V. Loucks, will be free of debt early in 1932. On September 27, 1931, an electric action pipe organ was dedicated. The sermonic address was given by Rev. D. W. Loucks, D.D., of Tiffin, Ohio. Installation of the organ completes equipment.

Trinity Church, Paradise Charge, Rev. Walter R. Clark, Turbotville, Pa., has had a marked increase in Sunday School attendance. Paradise Church built and equipped a modern kitchen in the basement. A 6% increase in the membership of the church was made through new members received during the year.

Twenty-three young people united with Trinity Church of the Saxton, Pa., Charge, Rev. Norman S. Greenawalt, on Easter. The pastor helped to conduct the community D.V.B.S. in both Saxton and Hopewell. The Sunday Schools have been well attended throughout the year. Weekly letters help to stimulate interest in the church.

During the past year, Trinity, Gettysburg, Pa., Rev. Howard Schley Fox, has been busy getting plans ready for its new church. The altar was beautified by the placing of several memorial gifts by members of the congregation. Rev. Fox has been pastor since November 1, 1930.

Rev. Harry D. Houtz, Ph.D., pastor of the East Berlin, Pa., Charge, served as president of the Ministerial Association of Gettysburg Classis during 1931. A class in Leadership Training was under instruction since May, with Mr. Eli Grose as teacher. A class of catechumens was confirmed at East Berlin last Spring; another class has been under instruction at Hampton during the Summer and Fall. Electric lights were installed at New Chester.

Pine Grove, Pa., Charge, Rev. H. C. Correll. All services throughout the year exceptionally well attended. Suspension of the mines, which was the chief source of income, has severely interfered with the carrying out of many financial projects. A slight indebtedness rests upon the Charge. A spirit of optimism still remains among the people.

The outlook for Hale Memorial Church, Dayton, Ohio, Rev. William A. Alspach, is very fine. There was a large increase in attendance over previous years. The present pastorate began Jan. 1, 1931. The combined services during the Summer months were a great inspiration.

The Ladies' Aid Society presented Zion's Evangelical Church, Helvetia, W. Va., Rev. C. Rufener, with new stained-glass windows. The parsonage was reroofed with metal in June, which reduced the insurance, $5.25. Apportionment paid monthly, in advance.

On June 7, St. Luke's, Lancaster, Pa., observed the 25th anniversary of the ordination of their pastor, Rev. John F. Frantz. The church was beautifully decorated. Greetings from Rev. Frantz's former Charges were read. The service was conducted by his son, John B. Frantz, a mid-dler in the Seminary at Lancaster and the sermon was by Dr. O. S. Frantz, a brother.

On June 21, St. Mark's, Lebanon, Pa., celebrated the 40th anniversary of the ordination of their pastor, Rev. I. Calvin Fisher, D.D. The sermon was delivered by Dr. Charles B. Alspach, of Philadelphia. The 30th anniversary of the dedication of the new building was also observed.

The 30th anniversary of Heidelberg Church, Hatfield, Pa., and the 40th anniversary of Rev. H. A. I. Benner's ordination were celebrated, June 20-22. The pastor received a large silver loving-cup from the congregation and other Charges he served. Mr. Wm. B. Hedrick's 30th anniversary as teacher of the Adult Bible Class was observed and he also received a beautiful loving cup.

Salem Church, Magley, Ind., Rev. D. Grether, observed its diamond jubilee, June 17-21. Seven out of 11 of the congregation's sons in the active ministry were present,—also Rev. O. J. Engelman, the only living former pastor. Revs. Martin and Nathaniel Vitz, sons of the first pastor, also took an active part in the celebration.

St. Paul's (English), Baltimore, Md., Rev. Lloyd E. Coblentz, D.D., entered upon the 39th year of the present pastorate, June 1. The Holy Communion was observed on that date. A feature of the observance was the celebration of the anniversary.

June 11, First Church, Forest Park, Chicago, Ill., Rev. F. Kalbfleisch, decreased the church debt $2,000. Later, about 80 banks in the Chicago area were closed and the treasuries of the church, the mortuary fund and general treasury of the Ladies' Society were tied up. The loss at this time cannot be estimated.

Muddy Creek Charge, Rev. Martin Schweitzer, Ephrata, Pa., celebrated the 125th anniversary of the building of Swamp Church, Reinholds, Pa., June 21-25. Corner-stone laid, of S. S. and social room of First Church, Ephrata, on July 26.

Rosedale Church, Laureldale, Pa., Rev. Samuel Givler, Jr., celebrated the 10th anniversary of its organization on June 28. The congregation had 118 charter-members. The present membership is 316. One hundred seventeen were confirmed during this period. On April 1, the congregation purchased the parsonage from the Board of Home Missions.

"Calvin Hall" of the Fairfield Hungarian Church, Bridgeport, Conn., Rev. Joseph Urban, was dedicated on June 14. The building, valued at $30,000, includes an auditorium supplied with soundproof folding partitions to afford school-rooms and in its basement are located bowling alleys and rooms for the different church organizations. The 5th anniversary was observed on Nov. 22.

The 15th anniversary of the dedication of the building of First Church, Pitscairn, Pa., Rev. Howard F. Loch, was observed, June 28. The congregation publishes a monthly paper called "The Hill Echo."

The 30th anniversary of the ordination of Rev. J. Theodore Bucher of Bethany Church, Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, was celebrated on June 7, during the morning service. Rev. D. W. Ebbert, D.D., Barberton, Ohio, offered the prayer. Rev. J. D. Buhner, Ph.D., Washington, D.C., preached the sermon on "A Minister of Christ for 30 years." This very happy event was saddened, on June 29, by the death of the pastor's wife, Mrs. Bessie A. Bucher, after only 5 days' illness.

A Summer V.B.S. was conducted for the first time in the history of Grace congregation, Philadelphia, Pa., Rev. U. C. Gutelius, during a period of 4 weeks, June 29—July 26. The congregation celebrated its 50th anniversary with appropriate services and sermons, on July 12 and from October 18—20.

First Church of Waukesha, Wis., Rev. H. G. Settlage, observed its 65th anniversary on June 21; and Salem, of Town Pewaukee, its 60th anniversary, on August 23.

Rev. John G. Grimmer was installed pastor of Greenfield Charge, Juniata Classis, on June 7. He began his pastorate in this Charge on May 20 after completing a 22 years' pastorate of Bethany Church, Baltimore, Maryland.

Membership of First Church, Salisbury, N. C., Rev. B. J. Peeler, went over the 300 mark. Average attendance at worship and Sunday School shows splendid gain. Finances have not been encouraging. The pastor celebrated his 35th birthday on June 28.

Rev. Nevin E. Smith assumed the pastorate of the Evans City, Pa., Charge, on June 7. Since then, the membership of both church and Sunday School have been regular in their attendance and have increased in numbers. The kindness of these people has greatly encouraged this new pastor in his first charge.

Vacation Church Schools were conducted in both churches of the Shenango Charge, Rev. A. C. Renoll, Fredonia, Pa., during June and July. Enrollment in St. John's, 81; Jerusalem, 32. St. John's dedicated a new pipe organ, free of debt, on July 19.

Salem Church of the Bethel, Pa., Charge, Rev. C. M. Rissinger, was renovated at a cost of $6000. Reopening services were held on July 19. The same day also marked the 20th anniversary of the ordination and installation of the present pastor.

The vacancy resulting in the Lemasters, Pa., Charge, by the election of Rev. R. S. Vandevere to the Reformed Church at Berwick, Pa., was filled by the election of Lic. Harvey M. Light, who was ordained to the Christian Ministry on July 5 and installed as pastor of the Charge.

In July, electric lights were installed in church and parsonage at Prairie du Sac, Wis., Rev. A. Ruehlman.

Trinity Church, Mercersburg, Pa., has a new pastor in the person of Rev. Harrison J. Lerch, Jr., who filled the vacancy left by Rev. C. B. Marsteller. Rev. Lerch was graduated from the Theological Seminary at Lancaster in May and began active work on July 1. He was ordained and installed in Trinity Church, July 19.

Trinity Church, Lewistown, Pa., Rev. Frederick A. Rupley, D.D., assumed self-support, July 1. Organized, Nov. 20, 1901, enrolled as a mission, June 2, 1902, this congregation has been a beneficiary of the Board of Home Missions in the following named amounts: $15,980.21, pastoral support; $16,868.63, building projects; 2nd mortgage loan, $12,000.

August 30, Rev. C. M. Mitzell completed his 7th year as pastor of the Shrewsbury, Pa., Charge. The members of this Charge have suffered greatly on account of the drought and depression.

Rev. Gustav R. Poetter observed the 15th anniversary of his pastorate of St. Mark's Church, Reading, Pa., August 2, giving the following statistics:—756 baptisms, 384 marriages, 631 funerals, 1,275 sermons; added 1,613 new members; 20,865 pastoral and sick calls; 22,356 attendance at church last year; congregational receipts, $230,568; benevolence, $83,733; total receipts 15 years,—$314,301.

Rev. G. J. Zenk, the first local pastor of our Shafter church in the southern San Joaquin Valley in California, after a successful ministry of 4 years, accepted a call from Hope Church, Lodi, California, on August 1.

A delightful Home-Coming Day was observed by Emanuel Church, near Doylestown, Ohio, Aug. 2, Rev. J. H. Poetter, Marshallville, Ohio. Five former pastors attended. This congregation, organized in 1817 by Lutherans and Reformed, has been the nucleus of several thriving congregations.

The Student's League of Many Nations of Binghamton, N. Y., rendered 2 inspiring services in Trinity and St. Paul's Churches of the Paradise Charge, Rev. E. V. Strasbaugh, Spring Grove, Pa., August 15 and 24.

Christ and Bethany Churches, Baltimore, Md., merged Aug. 31, taking the name "Messiah," retaining Christ church as the place of worship and unanimously electing Rev. J. L. Barnhart, D.D., who was pastor of Christ Church 21 years, as pastor. Three years after Christ Church was organized, Bethany, located 2 squares away, was started as a German congregation, but for some years has been English. One reason Rev. J. G. Grimmer of Claysburg, Pa., resigned from Bethany was to make possible this merger.

In connection with the celebration of the 70th anniversary of Livingstone Ave. Church, New Brunswick, N. J., Rev. Carl H. Gramm, the pastor wrote and published a history of the Church. German Synod of the East met during the anniversary, September 13-20.

September 13, Christ Church, Annville, Pa., Rev. K. O. Spessard, Ph.D., was reopened and the new pipe organ dedicated. The church was refrescoed, a new carpet laid, a new lighting system installed and changes were made in the chancel. The Hill Church observed a very successful Home Coming day, Aug. 13, when unusually large congregations were present.

On Sept. 6, Pleasant Run Boulevard Church, Indianapolis, Ind., Rev. R. C. Windhorst, built at a cost of $30,000 was dedicated. The present value of the entire property is $45,000. The modern S. S. is a great help in the work. The campaign of evangelism and visitation was on the program for the Fall work. Both pastor and congregation rejoice in God's blessings.

Grace Church, Detroit, Mich., Rev. C. A. Albright, observed its 35th anniversary, October 11-18. The entire interior of the church was redecorated and a Möller pipe organ installed, the cost being approximately $5,000. This congregation was organized by Rev. C. W. Brugh, September 27, 1896.

Zion Church, North Canton, Ohio, Rev. Melvin E. Beck, observed the 50th anniversary of its present location, October 11. The congregation's first building was erected in 1814. Rev. John H. Beck was pastor when the congregation moved from the Mt. Zion Cemetery site into New Berlin, now North Canton.

COOLIDGE TO THE COLLEGES

Our doctrine of equality and liberty, of humanity and charity, comes from our belief in the brotherhood of man through the fatherhood of God. The whole foundation of enlightened civilization, in government, in society, and in business, rests on religion. Unless our people are thoroughly instructed in its great truths they are not fitted either to understand our institutions or to provide them with adequate support. For our independent colleges and secondary schools to be neglectful of their responsibilities in this direction is to turn their graduates loose with simply an increased capacity to prey upon each other. Such a dereliction of duty would put in jeopardy the whole fabric of society. For our chartered institutions of learning to turn back to the material and neglect the spiritual would be treason, not only to the cause for which they were founded but to man and to God.

—CALVIN COOLIDGE

A PRAYER FOR FORGIVENESS

Forgive us, O God, for ever being downcast in a world so full of glory. Such glory as in our best moments we see revealed on every side; in the smile, trust, love, and sweetness of a child; in the song of a sparrow and in the murmur of a stream; in the devotion of a wife, in the ministry of a mother, and in the fidelity of a friend.

Forgive us, O God, the great sin of living joylessly, as if Thy gift of life were a little thing, and awaken in us the sense that ever and always Thy glory is passing by. In the name of Him Who walked our human ways and found them highways of Thy grace. Amen.

OBITUARIES

INCLUDING AVAILABLE PORTRAITS AND BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

AIGNER, REV. FRANCIS XAVIER, "fell on sleep," April 8, 1931, at the age of 68 years, 4 months and 18 days. He was born (as his name would indicate) in a Roman Catholic home, at Passau, Bavaria. His wife, too, was the daughter of a one-time Catholic, Dr. Henry Kurtz, beloved Mission House professor. Young Aigner came to America at the age of about 20 years and found work and a home with a farmer named Matzinger, near Swanton, Ohio. He learned to know the Heidelberg Catechism, and united with the Reformed Church. In the fall of 1882, he became a student at our Mission House, graduating in 1889 from the Seminary. He labored successfully for 13 years at Kaukauna, Wis., then a mission congregation. After a 10-year pastorate in Sixth Church, Cleveland (now included in St. Matthew's) he became traveling missionary in the Dakotas and neighboring States; he thus spent 12 years of unrelenting toil, until his health broke under the strain. He next served our Church at Loveland, Colo., 4 years, and then, after a period of retirement, he assumed the pastorate of Hope Church at Lodi, Cal. Two sisters in Germany survive, as also his widow, who was permitted to share 41 years of happy married life with him.

BEAVER, REV. GEORGE W., of Lisbon, Ohio, passed away May 14, 1931, having been in failing health since last February. The immediate cause of his death was pneumonia. He was born in the Miami Valley, O., one of 4 sons, 2 of whom, Chalmers W. and George W., entered the Christian ministry. After graduating from Heidelberg Seminary, Tiffin, O., in 1898, he was ordained and installed as pastor of St. Jacob's Charge. Thus began his only field of service and for 33 years he gave a fine example of what a long and faithful rural pastorate can accomplish. Mr. Beaver was active in community service and was known and beloved over a large area. Rev. L. J. Rohrbaugh, for many years a bosom friend of the deceased, was in charge of the funeral on May 17. A large company of members and friends attended the service and the Church could not contain half the people. This faithful pastor is survived by his widow and one son, Dr. Paul Beaver, Leetonia, O.

BRIDENBAUGH, REV. SAMUEL REED, D.D., was born in Sinking Valley, Huntingdon County, Pa., on January 26, 1849, the son of Henry H. and Susan Bridenbaugh; and died Sunday morning, August 23rd, at the home of his sister, in Greenville, Pa., the result of a paralytic stroke, at the age of 82 years. He graduated from Franklin and Marshall College in 1871 and from the Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pa., in 1875. For a time he taught in Juniata Institute. His first Charge was at Claysburg, Pa. He next became pastor at Berlin, Pa. Subsequently he served pastorates in Bloomsburg, Pa., the Church of the Ascension, Norristown, Pa., Second Church, Reading, Pa., and Oak Lane, Philadelphia, Pa. His longest pastorate of 20 years was at the Second Church, Reading. Dr. Bridenbaugh served as a member of General Synod's Board of Home Missions and in many other positions in the work of the denomination, and was recognized as one of the outstanding ministers of the Reformed Church. In 1876 he was united to Lydia Ann Bowman, a sister of the late Dr. John C. Bowman. To them were born 3 sons and 1 daughter. His wife, two sons and the daughter preceded him to the Heavenly home. One son, Paul, died just as he had completed an exceptional preparation for the Gospel ministry. He is survived by a son, John H., Esq., of Sinking Springs, Pa., with whom Dr. Bridenbaugh made his home. Also by 3 brothers, Howard and Nevin, of Martinsburg, Pa., and Charles, of Oak Lane, Pa., and two sisters, Mrs. Carrie L. Burnham, at whose home he died, and Mrs. Ella Hahn, widow of the late Rev. F. B. Hahn. The funeral services were held at the home of his son, John, at Sinking Springs, Thursday, Aug. 27. Burial was made in the Charles Evans Cemetery, Reading, Pa.

CRAMER, REV. W. STUART, D.D., pastor of First Church, Lancaster, Pa., for more than a quarter of a century, and a leader in his denomination as well as in his community's civic and religious life, died suddenly from angina pectoris at his home, on Nov. 6, 1930, aged 57 years. Born at Thurmont, Md., April 12, 1873, Dr. Cramer was the son of Milton Clay and Julia Crouse Cramer. He attended the public schools in Thurmont, and later prepared for college at Lamb's Academy, Baltimore, Md. He was a member of the Third Reformed Church of that city, Dr. C. Clever, pastor, and there decided to study for the ministry. While at Franklin and Marshall, Dr. Cramer was a leading member of many organizations. After graduation from the college in 1898, he entered the Theological Seminary, from which he was graduated in 1901, having won the prize in Church History. He began his ministry as assistant to the Rev. John M. Titzel, D.D., pastor of First Church, Lancaster, Pa., and when Dr. Titzel was made pastor emeritus in 1905, he was chosen pastor of the only congregation he ever served. About 10 years ago, he, with Rev. Charles E. Schaeffer, D.D., dedicated the Reformed Memorial Church at Chateau-Thierry, France, which had been destroyed during the World War, and was rebuilt as a memorial to the boys of the Reformed Church who died in the service. During the War, Dr. Cramer was granted a leave of absence by his congregation to engage in the work of the War Time Commission of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. He was made secretary of this commission. He was also executive secretary of the National Service Commission of the Reformed Church in the United States, which he organized. F. & M. College conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1921. At various times he served on Church commissions, and was elected President of the Eastern Synod in 1927. Dr. Cramer is survived by his wife and two children, W. Stuart, Jr., and Julia Margaret; his mother; a sister, Mrs. Marcus Brown, of New York; and a brother, Victor C. Cramer, of Detroit, Mich. The funeral services were held Nov. 10, in First Church, which was thronged with members of his congregation, and 125 ministers of the Reformed and other Churches. The interment was held privately in the Greenwood Cemetery, Lancaster.

Rev. Wilson D. Donat

Rev. Jacob Hauser

Rev. S. M. Hensch, D.D.

Rev. Elmer R. Hoke, Ph.D.

DONAT, REV. WILSON D., passed to eternal rest Jan. 22, 1931, aged 79 years and 9 months. Prior to his demise he was a patient in the Allentown City Hospital for two months. Mr. Donat was born near Wanamakers, Lehigh County, Pa., April 22, 1851, of parents native to this same locality, Aaron and Mary M. (Dietrich) Donat. He was confirmed in 1866 in Jacob's congregation, Jacksonville. During his early twenties he taught school in the vicinity of his home. His preparatory education was begun in the Keystone State Normal School, Kutztown, and the old Palatinate College, Myerstown. The consummation of his scholastic preparation was reached in the year 1882, when he graduated from the Theological Seminary at Lancaster. His first charge was the Briar Creek, Columbia Co., where he began active work Sept. 9, 1882. On April 24, 1883, he called to his side a devoted wife and helpmate, Emma A. Meckley. His first pastorate covered a period of two years and 7 months. In May, 1885, he began active work in Trinity Church, Shenandoah. From here he went to the Swatara Charge, Lebanon Co., November, 1895. During his early pastorate here he suffered bereavement, due to the death of his wife. On June 12, 1904, he was married to Sarah A. Miller, of Jonestown. In February, 1907, he became pastor of the Aaronsburg Charge in Center Co. His service here extended over 13 years—his longest and one of his happiest and most successful pastorates. His last pastorate was begun July 1, 1920, in the Strawberry Ridge Charge and ended July 1, 1924, at which time he retired from the active ministry after 42 years. The 6 years of his retirement were pleasantly spent in the home of his brother, Lewis J. Donat, of Wanamakers, and in the Phoebe Home at Allentown, being a guest in this institution for nearly two years. Mr. Donat is survived by two brothers: James A. and Lewis J.; and one sister, Mrs. Mary Lutz, all of Wanamakers, Pa.; also one son, Nevin Herbert, a student in the Theological Seminary at Lancaster. A daughter of the first marriage, Annie Pauline, and a son of the second, Harold Paul, preceded their father in death. The funeral was held from the home of his brother, Lewis, Jan. 27. Services were held in the Jacksonville Church and interment made in the adjoining cemetery.

HAUSER, REV. JACOB, the youngest child of Anna Mary and Jacob Hauser, was born April 1, 1845, in Aldingen, Oberant Spaichingen, Wuerttemberg, Germany. He died at his residence in Melbourne, Iowa, on June 27, 1931, aged 86 years, 2 months, and 26 days. When 7 years old Jacob, with his mother and 4 sisters, followed their father, who had come 4 years previous to Cincinnati, O. As he was compelled to help support his widowed mother he acquired his boyhood education under adverse conditions. He was received as a member in the Reformed Church through confirmation. He entered the Mission House, Plymouth, Wis., for his preparation and was ordained a Christian minister in 1873. His first charge was a commission as missionary to India by the German Evangelical, the Reformed Church having no foreign field at that time. After 3 years he returned to Wisconsin where he soon became the pioneer laborer among the Winnebago Indians, and was the first Protestant as also the first Christian missionary among them. He taught and preached to these Indians and after diligently studying their difficult language reduced it to writing and compiled a dictionary of 1,500 words and began a grammar. He labored here until 1885. The different charges he served were: Missionary to India, 1873-1876; Town Mosel, Wis., 1876-78; Winnebago Indian Missionary, 1878-85; Rising Sun, Ind., 1885-89; Archbold, O., 1889-99; St. Paul, Minn., 1899-1906; Melbourne, Iowa, 1906-15, after which time he lived in his own residence in Melbourne until his death. Mr. Hauser was not without trials and tribulations in his own household. He was widowed 3 times and lost his son, Paul, in the World War. He is survived by his wife who so faithfully served him to his departing moment; 7 children, 24 grandchildren, and 3 great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held at the Reformed Church June 30, in charge of the pastor.

HENCH, REV. SILAS M., D.D., was born Nov. 1, 1857, and died Sept. 27, 1931, after a lingering illness of more than a year, aged 79 years, 10 months, and 26 days. His beloved wife, Martha B., passed out of this world on Thursday, Sept. 24, just three days before the demise of her husband. A double funeral service was held in St. Luke's Church, Trappe, Pa., on Sept. 28, and interment was made in Augustus Lutheran Cemetery, Trappe. Dr. Hensch graduated from Ursinus College in 1877 with the degree of A.B. and his A.M. degree 1878. He graduated from the Ursinus School of Theology in 1879, and in 1929 the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him by Ursinus College. He was ordained to preach the Gospel in 1879. Dr. Hensch served the following charges:—The Glade, Maryland, 12½ years; the Utica Charge, 27½ years; Cavetown, Md., 7 years. During this period he also supplied pulpits for 1½ years. He retired from the active pastorate in 1916, after a continuous service of 48 years. His later years were spent in Trappe, Pa., where he and his wife were faithful attendants of St. Luke's Church. Dr. Hensch was a conscientious and earnest preacher of the Gospel and a sympathetic and friendly pastor. As a man he was lovable, unassuming, genteel and of most excellent character.

HOKE, REV. ELMER R. Ph.D., late president of Catawba College, was born Sept. 16, 1892; died March 25, 1931, in the president's home, Catawba College, Salisbury, N. C., aged 38 years, 6 months, and 9 days. He was born in Ada, O., the eldest child of Edward J. and Margaret Rhodes Hoke. He graduated from the high school in Lewistown, Pa., in 1909. That September he entered Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., graduating 4 years later with the degree of A.B. He then entered the Theological Seminary at Lancaster and graduated in 1917. He was licensed by the West Susquehanna Classis, Eastern Synod, June 7, 1917, and ordained by Westmoreland Classis, Pittsburgh Synod, Oct. 25, 1917. He became pastor of Faith Church, Trafford, Pa., the same year and served there for two years. From Trafford he was called to Trinity Church, Baltimore, Md., where he remained until 1920. From 1920 to 1922 Dr. Hoke was professor of Education and Psychology in Hood College, Frederick, Md.; and from 1922 to 1924 he occupied the same chair in Lebanon Valley College, Annville, Pa. In the meantime he did post graduate work in Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, receiving the degree of A.M. in 1920, and Ph.D. in 1922. Dr. Hoke was married to Miss Mary Virginia Heller, Biglerville, Pa., in 1916, who survives together with 4 sons: Elmer Rhodes, Jr., George Robert, Owen Heller and Richard Roy. He is also survived by an only brother, Rev. Dr. Roy E. Hoke, professor in Emory and Henry College, Emory, Va.; an only sister, Miss

Rev. Jas. S. Keppel

Rev. U. O. H. Kerschner

Rev. Thos. H. Krick

Rev. B. E. Lienkaemper

Margaret Rhodes Hoke; and his parents, residing in Lebanon, Pa. At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Catawba College on Aug. 7, 1924, Dr. Hoke was chosen to the high and responsible position of President of Catawba College, in which capacity he served with signal success down to the day of his removal by death. His brief administration at Catawba is generally acknowledged to have been outstanding in our recent Church history. All class activities at Catawba were discontinued from the death of President Hoke, March 25, until Monday following, March 30. Funeral services were conducted in the College auditorium March 27, and were attended by a great throng of friends, including many ministers. From Salisbury, the body was taken to Gettysburg, Pa., where final services were conducted from Trinity Church, March 28, and burial was made in the cemetery there.

KEPPEL, REV. J. S. (whose last pastorate near Alliance, Ohio, had lasted 17 years before his retirement) went Home on July 2, 1931, from his residence at Tiffin, O. He was the son of Henry and Elizabeth (Shaul) Keppel, and was born on Nov. 26, 1865, in Salem, Ill. Shortly thereafter the family moved to Tiffin, where Mr. Keppel was graduated from Heidelberg College in 1887 and from Heidelberg Theological Seminary in 1891. He served Reformed pastorates in Indiana, Michigan and Ohio, and made hundreds of friends through his pleasing pulpit personality, coupled with an unusually clear and comprehensive understanding of the Christian gospel. Funeral services were held at the Keppel home on July 11, and were largely attended by friends and former parishioners. He was married Sept. 1, 1891, to Miss Lillian M. Grendon, who with a son survives; also two brothers and a sister: Wm. H. and Charles G. Keppel, and Mrs. G. G. Smith. Rev. Mr. Keppel's death followed a long period of failing health. In recent years he had been actively associated with his son, Robert G. Keppel, in the management of the Keppel Floral Company at Tiffin.

KERSCHNER, REV. U. OLIVER H., son of Peter and Harriet Reichard Kerschner, died at Newport, Pa., May 2, 1931, after an illness of 11 days, at the age of 71 years, 2 months and 9 days. He was baptized by the Rev. Henry Hartman in Jerusalem Reformed Church of the Shenango Charge, where he became a devoted member and worker. During the years prior to entering the ministry he taught music, served as organist and choir director in Jerusalem and St. John's Churches, and in other Churches of the community. Educated in the public schools, at the age of 16 he entered Edinboro State Normal School. In 1882 he entered Thiel College and later Franklin and Marshall College at Lancaster, Pa., graduating in 1892 from the Theological Seminary. On May 17, 1892, he was ordained to the Gospel Ministry and installed pastor of Grace Church, Sharpsville, Pa., serving until 1895. He accepted a call from St. Peter's Church, St. Petersburg, Pa., laboring with marked success until 1905. From 1905 to 1915 he was pastor of St. Peter's Church, Punxsutawney, Pa. In 1915 he became pastor of the Church of the Incarnation, at Newport, Pa., a successful final pastorate of 16 years; he also served as the stated supply of the New Bloomfield Charge, beginning in Sept., 1929. On June 9, 1892, he married Miss Caroline Snyder, who preceded him in death nearly 5 years ago. An only child, Mrs. Earl G. Kline, wife of the pastor of our Church at Selinsgrove, Pa., survives, also 5 sisters and 2 brothers: Mrs. George A. Snyder, Mrs. H. E. Baer, Mrs. George Hoffacker, of Greenville, Pa.; Mrs. Robert Beightol of Oil City, Pa.; Mrs. George Adams of Portland, Ore.; Rev. William H. Kerschner, Meadville, Pa.; Alvin Kerschner, Ashland, O. Services were held May 4, in the Church at Newport. The body was taken to Greenville, Pa., where on May 6 a service was held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Snyder. Burial was made in the cemetery at St. John's.

KRICK, REV. THOMAS HENRY, died at his home in West Wyomissing, near Reading, Pa., Sept. 21, 1931, aged 63 years, 8 months, 10 days. There survive his widow, Jennie (Hain) Krick; two daughters, Marie, wife of Charles F. Wink, and Ruth H. Krick, both at home; one brother, Wm. F. Krick, and two sisters, Ida R. Krick, and Mrs. M. Ella Miller, all of Sinking Spring. He was born in Spring township on the old homestead, a son of the late Adam B. and Lucy R. (Reber) Krick. Attended the local schools and the Charter Oak Academy. He graduated from Keystone State Normal School in 1887. Graduated from Franklin and Marshall College in 1892 and from the Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pa., in 1895. On May 22, 1895, he was licensed by Lebanon Classis and was ordained July 7th, the same year, at Jacob's Church, Weissport, Pa., which pastorate he served for 6 years. In August, 1901, he became the pastor of the Coplay Charge, comprising Trinity at Coplay, St. John's at Mickle's and St. John's at Fullerton. He served this charge most successfully until September, 1930, when he resigned on account of ill health. Mr. Krick served in various capacities in the Classes to which he belonged, and was universally esteemed as a brother beloved, an able preacher of the Word of God, and an unusually successful pastor. Funeral services were held at the home and in St. John's Reformed Church, Sinking Spring, and interment made in the adjoining cemetery.

LIENKAEMPER, REV. BENJAMIN E., son of Rev. Karl and Margaretha (Imig) Lienkaemper, was born June 7th, 1873, at Waukon, Iowa, and departed this life Nov. 18th, 1930, in Louisville, Ky. When he was seven years old the widowed mother moved to Franklin, Wis., to find better facilities for the education of her children. Here he entered the Mission House at the age of fourteen, and in due time graduated from College and Seminary. He was licensed and ordained by Sheboygan Classis and became pastor of our church at Haskins, Ohio. Five years later he began work in the Stone Creek, O., Charge. Thence he went to Bellaire, O., and then to Jeffersonville, Ind. His next pastorate was in Upper Sandusky, O., where he labored with marked success for fifteen years. His last pastorate was at our Milton Ave. Church in Louisville, Ky., where under his devoted leadership the work prospered numerically and spiritually. "He was a man of deep faith, quiet and reserved manners, kind and loving disposition; he was a tireless worker, a great reader, a deep thinker, a choice scholar and blessed with a remarkable memory." Funeral services were conducted by our Louisville pastors in the Milton Ave. Church. The immediate survivors are four brothers and two sisters, Rev. Calvin and August of Yakima, Washington, Rev. William, Miss Amanda and Mrs. Clara Arpke of Salem, Ore., and Rev. Albert of Portland, Ore. He was unmarried. Upon notification of his serious illness his brother

Rev. H. F. Limbacher

William hurried to his bedside to be with him during this five weeks sickness and to take the body to Wisconsin, where interment was made in the family lot in the cemetery of Immanuel Church near the Mission House. There were present at the services here fifteen ministers of Sheboygan Classis, who gave a farewell greeting by casting a flower on the casket and repeating an appropriate verse from the Bible.

LIMBACHER, REV. HERMAN F., died at his late home at Porterfield, Wis., Nov. 20, 1930, having attained the age of 62 years, 8 months and 9 days. He was a son of William and Katherine Limbacher, pioneer citizens of St. Marys, O., whose sons and daughters have a prominent part in the business, social, and religious activities of the community. His death removed from life's activities a former St. Marys boy who leaves his impress on the generation in which he lived. He graduated from the St. Marys High School in 1885, taught school for 5 years, attended what is now Ohio Northern University at Ada, after which he was at the Mission House for 7 years, graduating in 1897. He served his first congregation at Dayton, O., for 6 years; here, on Oct. 17, 1900, he was married to Miss Gertrude P. Wieser. The following 5 years were spent as pastor at Iron-ton, O. After serving at Glenmont, O., Crothersville, and Lin-ton in Indiana, he was in the Ragersville, O. Charge for 9 years and at Applecreek, O., for two years, then going for 5 years to his last congregation, Porterfield, Wis., where he served until his death. His marriage was blessed with 3 daughters and two sons; one son died in infancy. His 3 married daughters and a grandson reside at Akron, O. Besides his immediate family, he is mourned by two brothers and two sisters. The funeral services were held in St. Paul's Church at St. Marys, Ohio.

MASONHEIMER, REV. A. M., Ph.D., born in North White-hall Twp., Lehigh Co., Oct. 25, 1853, died June 12, 1931, at his home in Weatherly, Pa. He was educated in the public schools of Lehigh Co., and attended the Kutztown Normal School, Pal-atinate Academy, Ursinus College, and Yale University, from which he graduated in 1880. He received a degree of doctor of philosophy pro merito, from Allegheny College. He served one year as a pastor in Orange, Vt., and in 1881 accepted a call from Salem Church, Weatherly, Pa., serving this charge for 43 years, a record for this section as to length of service in one charge in the Reformed denomination. He was also interested in the business and educational affairs of the community, in which he re-sided for 50 years. The present handsome church was built dur-ing his pastorate, and he served the congregations at Rockport and Packer Township until the time of his retirement. He was a member of Hazle Lodge of Masons. He is survived by his widow, one daughter, Mrs. H. E. Tyson, Weatherly; two sons, A. M. Masonheimer, Jr., Hightstown, N. J., and Dr. Willard C., Allentown, Pa.; 3 grandchildren; and two brothers. The fun-eral was held on June 16 from his late home, and services were conducted in Salem Church, which was taxed to capacity by friends of the deceased. There were many and beautiful floral tributes. The pall-bearers were members of the Hazle Lodge No. 327, F. and A. M. Interment was made in Union Cemetery.

MCCLELLAN, REV. WILLIAM A., died following a heart attack, on April 30, 1931, at his home in Rockwood, Somerset Co., Pa., aged 70 years, 11 months, 15 days. He was born May 15, 1860, in Miffln Co., Pa., in the vicinity of Siglerville, and was a son of Joseph R. and Elizabeth (Middlesworth) McClellan. When but a small boy he moved with his parents to Potter Township, Centre Co., Pa. From here he attended various schools, and entered Franklin and Marshall College with a view of preparing for the ministry. After his graduation from the College in 1896, he entered the Theological Seminary in Lan-caster, graduating in 1899. He served the following pastorates: Pleasant Unity, Youngstown, West Milton, Conyngham, Rock-wood, and Rebersburg. While serving the Rebersburg Charge he retired, because of ill health, in July, 1930. He then removed to Rockwood, Pa., where he made his home. He is survived by his wife who, before marriage, was Miss Catherine Runkle, of Potter Township; two children, Grace, wife of Dr. C. H. Ride-nour, of Rockwood, Pa., and Dr. Roy McClellan; one sister, and 5 brothers. Funeral services were held in the Union Church at Tusseyville, Centre Co., Pa. Interment was made in the cem-etry adjoining the Union Church.

NOACKER, MILTON MONROE, son of John and Priscilla Noacker, was born at Pallas P. O., Snyder Co., Pa., November 22, 1860. He was educated at Selinsgrove Institute (1879) and at the Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pa., 1890, with the B.D. degree. He was licensed by E. Susquehanna Classis, June 9th, 1890, and ordained by Lancaster Classis, August 24, 1890. Dur-ing his ministry he served the following pastorates:—Maytown Charge, 1890-1893; Arendtsville, Pa., 1893-1901; Homestead, Pa., 1901-1902; Duncannon, Pa., 1903-1907; Enola, Pa., 1907-1908; Rowen, N. C., 1908-1912; Albemarle, N. C., 1913; Fifth Creek, So. Presbyterian, N. C., 1914; Woodstock, Va., 1914-1916; Ar-cadia Presbyterian, Cal., 1916-1919. With the Near East Relief, 1919-1921. Organized and pastor of West Hollywood Mission, Cal., 1921-1929. At that time he retired, and after a brief ill-ness died October 10, 1930. Funeral services were conducted in the Trinity, West Hollywood Church on Oct. 14, and interment was made in the Inglewood Park Cemetery, Los Angeles, Cal. Brother Noacker was married on June 8, 1882, to Miss Anna M. Hockenbroch. After her death he married, on Jan. 12, 1910, Miss Anna K. Seager. One child, Elizabeth Tupper Noacker, together with the widow, remain to mourn his death.

RUF, REV. BECHTOLD, born on May 14, 1857, a native of Switzerland and son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ruf, was the last to survive in a family of 13 children. He died at his home in Berne, Ind., on Feb. 2, 1931, aged 73. He was married to Mari-anne Hodel in 1880 and the couple came to America in 1883. In 1887 he graduated from Heidelberg Seminary, Tiffin, O. Our Church in Berne is a monument to Rev. Mr. Ruf; he was pastor when the building was erected and he carved with his own hands sand stone ornaments on it. Before coming to Berne he served the Base Line Charge near Bucyrus, O., and at Auburn and Garrett, Ind. In 1899 he became superintendent of the Ft. Wayne Orphans' Home, remaining there 14 years. In 1913 he became pastor of our Church at Bay City, Mich. In 1918 he was called to start an Old People's Home in Toledo, relocated to Upper Sandusky, O. This was his last field of active service. Mr. and Mrs. Ruf were both seriously injured in March, 1920; a tornado had thrown the city into darkness and on their way home from Church, while waiting for a street car, they were struck by an automobile. Mr. Ruf sustained a broken neck. His condition was not discovered until months later, when specialists marveled that he was still alive, and at once prepared a cast for his neck and healed the injury in 6 months. A year ago Mr. and Mrs. Ruf celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Mr. Ruf was a skilled artist as well as a minister of the Gospel. He is survived by his widow and 5 children: Martha, wife of Rev. Dr. Geo. Longaker, Miamisburg, O.; Rev. Frank Ruf, Pontiac, Mich.; Clara, wife of Dr. Louis Hessert at the Mission House; Dora, wife of W. E. Miller, Middletown, O., and Ermin Ruf, Ft. Wayne, Ind. The funeral was largely attended at the Cross Reformed Church, Berne, Ind., on Feb. 4. About 20 ministers and delegate elders attended in a body.

SIEGEL, REV. CHARLES W. E., died at his home in York, Pa., Sept. 24, 1931, aged 85 years, 5 months, 23 days. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Annie E. Siegel, and two daughters, Mrs. E. P. Minnich, York, Pa.; Mrs. F. Wm. Schacht, Chicora, Pa.; and a sister, Mrs. Mary Hess of Northampton, Pa. He was born March 31, 1846, near Bethlehem, Pa., and received his early education in a public school. At the age of 16 he decided to prepare for the Christian ministry. While preparing he engaged in the trade of stone-cutting, and later offered his services to the first Orphans' Home at Bridesburg, near Philadelphia, now the Bethany Home at Womelsdorf, Pa. He studied 1 year at Basel, Switzerland, and upon his return engaged again in stone-cutting. Later he entered Franklin and Marshall College and graduated in 1874, and from the Theological Seminary in 1877. After becoming pastor of the Hamilton Charge in Monroe Co., Pa., he married Miss Annie E. Faesig of Lancaster, Pa. He served in both English and German languages at Houtzdale, Pa.; the Orbisonia Charge in Huntingdon Co., Pa.; the Armstrong Valley Charge, near Harrisburg; and Halifax, Pa. In 1902 he removed to York, Pa., where he lived largely in retirement. He was the author of many religious poems, and a regular contributor to the "Reformed Church Messenger." In 1876 he published a volume, "A Hundred Years Ago." Funeral services were held at his late home Monday afternoon, Sept. 28th, and interment was made in the Community Mausoleum, Prospect Hill cemetery.

STEIN, REV. SAMUEL HENRY, D.D., born in Annville, Pa., March 18, 1871, the son of George W. and Caroline Rauch Stein, was instantly killed in an accident on Dec. 19, 1930, while motoring to Hood College, Frederick, Md., to bring home his daughter, Marion, for the Christmas holidays. He was baptized and confirmed in the Reformed Church of Annville by the late Dr. Jonathan E. Hiester. He was educated in the schools of his community and, after teaching for some years in the public schools, entered Franklin and Marshall College, graduating in 1896. He then entered the Theological Seminary, graduating in 1899. He was licensed by the Classis of Lebanon in May, 1899, and ordained by a committee of the Carlisle Classis in St. Paul's Church, Mechanicsburg, in June of the same year. His ministry began in St. Paul's Church, Mechanicsburg, where he served for 5 years. In 1904 he accepted a call to St. Luke's Church, Lock Haven. In 1905 he married Miss Marian Ellen Brenner, of his first parish, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Brenner. In 1910 he was called to the pastorate of Trinity First Church, York, Pa., to succeed Dr. Henry H. Apple, who had been elected President of Franklin and Marshall College. Here he spent his last 20 happy and fruitful years, among a devoted and loyal people, endearing himself not only to his own congregation but to the whole community. In 1921 Franklin and Marshall College conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. He was a member of the Board of Directors of the Hoffman Orphanage and its treasurer since 1912; a member of the Board of Trustees of F. & M. College, and served as chairman of the Frederick Summer Missionary Conference. He also served as chaplain of the York City Fire Department during the entire period of his residence in the city and had been chaplain of the Pennsylvania Firemen's Association since 1914. Dr. Stein is survived by his wife, and two children, Samuel B., and Marion R.; by a brother, Dr. J. Rauch Stein of Philadelphia, Stated Clerk of the General Synod; and a half-sister, Kathryn F. Stein. A second brother, George H. Stein, Esq., of Philadelphia, died ten years ago. The funeral service was held in Trinity First Church, York, on Dec. 22, 1930. The whole community was in mourning. Interment was made privately in the Community Mausoleum in Prospect Hill Cemetery. The bugler of the Boy Scouts, who formed a guard of honor, standing on the steps of the Mausoleum, sounded taps.

SUMMEY, REV. CHRISTIAN WAGONER, born in Knobsville, Fulton Co., Pa., April 29, 1850, the son of Samuel and Catherine Summey, died on Dec. 22, 1930, at his home in Edinburg, Pa. He was educated in the public schools of Knobsville, in which he later taught for some time. He graduated from Mercersburg College, 1875, and the Lancaster Theological Seminary, 1882. He was licensed to preach by Virginia Classis in 1882, and ordained at Timberville, Va., July 10, 1883. He served the following pastorates: Timberville, Va., 1883-85; Greenville Charge, Pa., 1885-91; Pine Run, Pa., 1891-93; Pine Run-Salina Charge, 1893-1900; Eddyville, Pa., 1900-1904; Friend's Cove, 1904-1908; Pine Run, second pastorate, 1908-1916. He was married to Miss Sue Crum, South Bend, Pa., on Oct. 14, 1886, who preceded her husband in death. Funeral services were held in St. Paul's Church in Edinburg on Dec. 23, and services were also held in First Church, Apollo, Pa. The interment was in the cemetery at South Bend.

WARE, REV. FREEMAN, the only son of Elias and Charlotte (Smith) Ware, was born near Colon, St. Joseph county, Michigan, December 5, 1861; died August 21, 1931, aged 69 years, 8 months and 16 days. He was educated in the public schools and in 1880 entered Heidelberg College, Tiffin, Ohio. On Aug. 9, 1883, he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah H. Chamberlain, of Colon, Mich. In June, 1886, he became pastor of the Heriah Charge, Mich. The following year he received a call from the First Church, Three Rivers, Mich., and served this Charge 7 years. He was then commissioned by the Home Mission Board to the Athens Charge, Calhoun county, Mich. In the fall of 1897 he entered the Heidelberg Theological Seminary and graduated with the class of 1899. Again he became pastor of the Athens, Mich., Charge and served it 2 years. The Shelby, Ohio, pastorate followed, where he served 1½ years. The White Pigeon Charge he served for 16 years. While there he became a member of the township school board, and in 1914 was appointed post master at White Pigeon by President Wilson, which office he held for 9 years. In 1924 he was called as supply pastor of his old home Church, where he continued in service until the time of his death. He is survived by his devoted wife, two half-sisters and a half-brother. Funeral services were held in the South Colon Church, Monday, Aug. 24, and burial made in the Eberhard cemetery, Colon, Michigan.

Rev. W. B. Werner

WERNER, REV. WILLIAM B., born in Albany Twp., Berks Co., Pa., Dec. 7, 1861, son of Jonas and Abigail (Bauscher) Werner, and died in Tuscarora, Md., July 22, 1931, in his 70th year. Educated in the public schools, Keystone State Normal School, Kutztown, Pa., Franklin and Marshall College (graduating 1889) and Lancaster Theological Seminary, 1893. Licensed by Lehigh Classis May 7, 1883, and was ordained Sept. 17, 1893, and installed as pastor of the Schwenksville, Pa., Charge, which he served faithfully 15 years. On Mar. 27, 1894, Mr. Werner was married to Miss Sarah I. Fahrenbach, of Reading, Pa., who survives him, together with two daughters, Mrs. Helen M. Safrit, at home, and Mrs. Emily R. Orrison, Brunswick, Md.; also by 4 grandchildren. Other fields served by Mr. Werner were as follows: Union and Millersburg Charges, Hudson, Ind., 3 years; Trinity, Concord, N. C., 3 years; Brunswick, Md., 1½ years; Supt. Nazareth Orphans' Home, Crescent, N. C., over 6 years; and Burkittsville Charge, Md., where he began Sept. 1, 1922 and served until May 18, 1931, when ill health necessitated retirement from active work. Mr. Werner moved to a new home in Tuscarora, Md., but after a few months was called into the heavenly rest. He was a devoted preacher and pastor who rendered a good account of his stewardship. His funeral was held at the family residence July 25, and interment was made in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Frederick, Maryland.

WHITMORE, REV. GEORGE ABRAM, fourth son of Elder Samuel and Sophia (Evers) Whitmore, born May 15, 1848, near Staunton, Augusta Co., Va., died May 22, 1931, at Lancaster, Pa., after an illness of 4 weeks, the culmination of 13 years of intermittent suffering, aged 83 years and 7 days. He was early made a child of the Covenant by baptism by Rev. Daniel Feete, pastor of St. Michael's Church, where he was catechized and confirmed by Rev. John C. Hensel, pastor of the Mt. Crawford Charge. He came of a priestly family, 4 uncles, brothers of his devout mother, and 3 of his brothers having been ordained ministers. He received his elementary education in the "subscription" schools of that day and subsequently at White Hall, Pleasant Grove and Mt. Crawford Academies. Sept., 1869, he entered Mercersburg College, as a student for the ministry and was graduated in 1875. He was a member of the Marshall Literary Society. That fall he began the post-graduate course in Theology, under the regime of Dr. E. E. Higbee and Profs. J. B. Kershner and D. Y. Heisler, and was graduated with the degree of Master of Arts on his 30th birthday. At the annual meeting of the Virginia Classis at St. Michael's Church, June, 1878, he was examined and recommended for licensure. In 1879 he accepted a call to the St. John's Charge, Armstrong Co., Pa. He was ordained and installed as pastor of the Charge of 3 congregations at St. Mark's Church, Eddyville. On Oct. 20, 1880, he was married to Miss Sarah Elizabeth Lichliter, Woodstock, Va., by the bride's brother, Rev. W. F. Lichliter. He is survived by his wife and 4 children: Ethel Elizabeth, Bernard L., Rev. George M., and Raymond Evers. One son, Jay Dinges, died in infancy. One brother, Rev. Dr. Samuel L. Whitmore, Forreston, Ill., also survives. In 1883, he accepted a call to Mill Creek Charge, Mt. Jackson, Va. In 1889 he accepted a call to Thurmont Charge, Md. Classis, consisting of 4 congregations. During a pastorate of 17 years, old debts were paid, Trinity Church rebuilt and parsonage remodeled. He became pastor of Zion's Church, Millersville, Pa., in 1906, where after serving 12 years, illness forced him to retire from active ministry. Realizing the necessity of systematic records for the Church, he devised a new record book designed to aid pastors in keeping such data. Funeral services were held May 24, at the home of his daughter in Lancaster. Burial was made in Woodstock, Va.

WISSLER, REV. HARRY WALTER, born May 5, 1868, at Shepherdstown, W. Va., died very suddenly at his home in Thurmont, Md., on June 6, 1931, following a heart attack several hours earlier. He had been ill only a day and his death came as a shock. His wife, Mrs. Nannie C. Wissler, died May 7, 1931. He was the 2nd son of the late Rev. and Cornelia Everhart Wissler. The greater part of his youth was spent in Thurmont where he attended the public schools. He took a preparatory course at Mercersburg Academy and later attended Franklin and Marshall College and Heidelberg, where he graduated in 1892. He took his theological course at the Lancaster Theological Seminary and successfully served pastorates at Catawissa, Carlisle, Everett, Pa., and Mt. Crawford, Va. He was married in March, 1896, to Miss Nannie Heinlein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Heinlein, Frederick City. He is survived by 3 sisters: Dr. Kate W. Leatherman, Greensburg, Pa.; Mrs. W. A. Garrison, Bristol, Tenn.; Miss Jessie Louise Wissler, Thurmont; and one brother, George E. Wissler, Troy, N. Y. In December, 1927, at the advice of his physician he resigned from the ministry and spent the following 2 years in California seeking to regain his health. The funeral was held from his late residence on June 9. Interment was made in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Frederick, Md., at which time the Masonic committal service also was held.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

of the Reformed Church in the United States

LANCASTER, PENNSYLVANIA

This School of Theology, the oldest educational institution of the Reformed Church, is conducted under the direction of three English Synods: The Eastern, the Pittsburgh, and the Potomac.

Six Professors, four Instructors, an annual Lecturer and a Librarian.

In addition to the required work in the six Departments, courses are offered in Social Christianity, Rural Church Problems, History and Theory of Missions, History and Comparative Study of Religions and Church Music. A Professor of Christian Education will have charge of that department for the coming year. Required and Elective courses leading to degree of B.D. Worship conducted in chapel with pipe organ under the direction of a Master of Sacred Music.

Rooms and board in new dormitory and refectory at moderate rates.

The Seminary year begins on the second Thursday of September.

GEORGE W. RICHARDS, President

Franklin and Marshall College

LANCASTER, PENNSYLVANIA

Established 1787

Franklin and Marshall College offers complete four-year courses of study, leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Science in Economics. The group elective system of studies, covering a wide range, is formed with reference to general culture and life work.

Modern, well-equipped laboratories afford excellent opportunities for work in Physics, Chemistry and Biology and in preparation for the study of medicine and commercial chemistry.

A course in Economics and Business Administration is especially adapted for students preparing for business life.

The Faculty consists of men of profound and accurate scholarship, who hold that the upbuilding of mind and character is the chief function of the college, and care for the individual development of each student.

A college whose graduates make exceptional records. Emphasis is placed on the quality of work rather than upon the number of students.

How to Use the System

Begin by presenting every scholar with the No. 0 celluloid pin. For every term of three months' un-interrupted attendance the pupil earns a reward. For the first term the No. 1 pin; for the second the No. 2 pin; for the third the No. 3x pin; for the fourth the No. 6 pin. Thirteen consecutive Sundays may be considered as three months. Pupils absent without a satisfactory excuse lose the interrupted term, but may begin a new term the next Sunday they attend, continuing to wear the pin already earned.

Each pin obtained is to be worn until the next higher grade is earned, but surrendered upon receiving the new one. The No. 6 solid gold pin is presented outright, and with it a handsome litho-graphed certificate, 9 x 11 inches, with seal and ribbon attached (for framing). For each additional reward earned another seal and ribbon is attached. These certificates are free to schools. Send for sample.

The System pays for itself by increased offer-ings as evidenced by numerous testimonials, and may be started successfully at any time. This has been repeatedly proven by actual results.

No. 0

No. 0 celluloid pin color blue and white, $1.25 per 100.

No. 1

No. 1 Bronze Cross and Crown Pin, 8 cents each.

No. 2

No. 2 gunmetal finished pin, blue enameled cross, white ribbon, red background, 20 cents each.

No. 3x

No. 3x silver plated hand engraved pin, red enameled cross, white ribbon, blue background, 25 cents each.

No. 6

No. 6 solid gold hand engraved pin, blue ribbon, white back-ground, en-ameled, $1.05 each.

A handsome leaflet lithographed in colors and bronzes describing the use of the System goes with every No. 0 pin. We put up a sample set of five pins in an attractive velvet box. These are sent on approval to be returned in thirty days.

Cross and Crown Pins Pay for Themselves

"The Cross and Crown system increased our school more than 50%; the offerings nearly 300%."—Jacob Miller, Supt. S. S. Arcanum, Ohio.
 "Our school has doubled in attendance, contributions quadrupled, and the interest is intense."—J. L. P. Beeman Supt. S. S. Cholong, Ill.
 "The increased collections will more than pay for the pins, in fact, we have assumed $150 per year of the interest on the Church debt."—W. E. Griffin, Secretary S. S., New Brighton, Pa.
 "Have used Cross and Crown System three years, attendance sure to grow and pay for the pins."—F. G. McCullough, Supt. S. S., Conesville, Iowa.
 "The Cross and Crown System is self-supporting."—Harold I. McKeever, Cor. Secretary S. S., Brownsville, Pa.
 "More than pleased, increase in attendance over 100%, in collections, even greater. Delighted."—John E. Barnard, Supt., Cartersville, Ga.

Second to Sixteenth Year Rewards Inclusive

Pupils regularly attending an additional year earn the gold wreath; following this the gold third, fourth, fifth, sixth, up to sixteenth year bars. Hand engraved wreath $1.05, enameled bars each 80 cts.

Church Attendance Rewards

The star and cross pendants made in the same grades as pins are intended for church attendance and are to be at-tached to the pins. Prices: No. 1—3 cts., No. 2—6 cts., No. 3—13 cts., No. 6 (solid gold) with birthstone 80 cts., with diamond $1.05. Schools should use Vacation Certificates also Reward Record Cards.

THAT "Churchly Atmosphere" so necessary to calmness of mind and appreciation of the service depends largely on visual comfort. In a soft mellow light the pupils dilate and the eyes are at ease, while under a glaring light the eyes are subjected to strain, causing annoyance and fatigue. The accompanying illustrations of human eyes, one under a bright light and the other under a diffused light clearly indicate that the one (at the left) is being subjected to strain, while the other (at the right) is at ease. As the only fixture manufacturers in the country, doing church work exclusively, Rambusch is in a position to give you the best fixtures obtainable at reasonable prices. If you have a lighting problem, Rambusch Designers and Church Lighting Specialists will help you solve it. Lighting layouts and specifications will be submitted without any obligation on your part.
